CORPORATE WORK STUDY PROGRAM, Administrative Assistant

Reports to: VP of Programming, CWSP

Organization
Verbum Dei High School was founded in 1962 to serve the young men of Watts and its surrounding communities. A Catholic, Jesuit High School, Verbum Dei is a learning and work-study community that empowers young men to be academically, spiritually and socially prepared to enter and graduate from college in pursuit of a more humane and just world. Verbum Dei is member of the national Cristo Rey Network (www.cristoreynetwork.org), an association of 28 Catholic schools.

Corporate Work Study Program
In 2002, Verbum Dei adopted the innovative Corporate Work Study Program (CWSP) created to fund inner-city college and career preparatory education. CWSP is a successful partnership between business, education and the young men of Verbum Dei. Corporate Partners provide one “full-time equivalent” for a fee. This position is filled by four young men and each student intern works five full days a month on a rotational basis. The Corporate Work Study Program is a life changing opportunity where students gain knowledge, self-confidence, transferrable work and life skills that prepare them for college and beyond.
