Student Organization – A student organization is comprised of at least 10 persons who have complied with the University requirements for registration as an organization. They may also receive fiscal, human and/or space resources from the University. Academic classes may not register as a student organization and may not hold on campus events through Student Leadership & Development.

University Program – A program coordinated or supervised by a University department that receives significant fiscal, human and/or space resources from the University. The University designates University Program status on an annual basis. University Programs include, but are not limited to:

1. Alternative Breaks
2. ASLMU
3. Campus Recreation Student Managers
4. Christian Life Community

Organization – Any duly registered or designated student organization or University program. The term organization shall be used throughout the Student Organization and University Program Policies & Procedures Manual to refer to both entities.

Group – A number of persons who are associated with each other and have not complied with University requirements for registration or designation as a student organization or University program, or are ineligible for such status. Only organizations registered with Student Leadership and Development are officially affiliated with the University. Student Leadership and Development strongly encourages student participation in registered organizations only. Groups may not:

1. Be afforded any University privileges that are afforded to registered organizations.
2. Use the Loyola Marymount University name or logo.
3. Participate as a group in University or organization activities, with the exception of University-affiliated affinity groups approved by SLD. For example, all of the women living in Desmond may form a team and participate in an on campus event.
4. Register an organization to serve as a cover for their group. Organizations found to be operating as a cover for a group may have their organization registration status revoked and all events may be cancelled.
5. Plan any event, dance, or concert under the guise of another student organization.
6. Collaborate with any registered organizations.
7. Solicit or apply for any type of LMU funding.
