Dear Loyola Marymount University Students,

On behalf of the Division of Student Affairs, welcome to the 2015-2016 academic year! We hope that you will fully participate in the richness that our academic community has to offer through its traditions and legacies. It is in this spirit that we invite you to read the Lion's Code, which you will find on page 4.

Our mission at LMU embraces the encouragement of learning, the education of the whole person, the service of faith and the promotion of justice. We expect your experience to be transformative and supportive of your intellectual, ethical, spiritual and personal formation.

We pride ourselves on being a university that graduates students who are prepared to be global leaders with and for others. To this end, the Community Standards booklet contains policies that are based on the assertion that students view their campus with a sense of community and are engaged in the development of the University. The Community Standards have been established to assist in building a community of scholarship where the respect, consideration and dignity of every single one of us are paramount. Thus, we hold the members of our community to standards of excellence with their academics and personal behavior. Such an environment is essential in the delivery of LMU’s particular brand of Catholic education, which has been marked profoundly by the Marymount and Ignatian traditions.

The policies and resources included in this booklet apply to all students of Loyola Marymount University. Please take the time to carefully review this information, as it is your responsibility to be familiar with all of the University’s standards of conduct. It is important to keep in mind that ignorance does not excuse the violation of any policy or procedure. The University reserves the right to change any provision or requirement at any time. During the course of the year, updates to this printed copy can be found on the University website, http://lmu.edu.

Loyola Marymount University is committed to providing an intellectually challenging and enlivened campus community. We ask that you engage in your learning to the fullest, that you lead with intelligent hearts and compassionate minds, and that you serve those who are in need.

We wish you a successful academic year!

Sincerely,

Jeanne Ortiz, Ph.D.

To be in the world, to be fully alive, is to inhabit a place. A Lion finds her or his place guided by the traditions, the community, and the academy of Loyola Marymount University.

Inspired by the traditions of its founding religious orders Loyola Marymount University has cleared a place for you to stand in faith, learn to be one for others, and take up responsibility in the world. In faith, the Lion grows to be fully alive, clear in thought, rich in vision, and vigorous in act.

In the community of Loyola Marymount University, the Lion discovers her and his place in the world. Respect for others’ individuality, culture, and belief provides the Lion the freedom to explore her or his identity.

Recognizing dignity in others, in groups, and in traditions illuminates the dignity of all. The Lion gladly takes responsibility for the actions of the mind, hand and heart, and thereby, builds the community that sustains all.

In the academy, the Lion bonds with wisdom of the ages. Academic discourse is composed of diverse perspectives, sciences, and arts. The conversation of this place requires respect for peers, professionals, professors, and students. With honesty of voice and integrity of scholarship, the Lion joins the conversation that summons the passion for learning and shelters the adventurous mind.

Some will pass through and never inhabit this place. Others will be here but never shape this place.
Those who embrace this tradition give form and force to this place, just as the tradition inhabits and shapes our mission: the encouragement of learning, the education of the whole person, the service of faith and the promotion of justice. In this tradition, among this community, within this academy, you are asked to stand, learn, and be in the world.

YOU ARE ASKED TO BE A LION.

DECLARATIVE

I am a Lion. Courageous of mind, charitable of heart, I stand in faith.

I will own the actions of my mind, hand and heart and build the community that sustains us. The respect and support that nurtures me is born of my respect for others. The dignity of the other, the stranger, grants me dignity. The expectations of my community are my own, and I will discover how I may be more fully alive.

I will join the discourse of the academy with honesty of voice and integrity of scholarship. Respecting peers, professionals, professors, and students, I will embrace the diverse perspectives, arts, and sciences to discover what it means to be human. I will shelter and support the intellectual adventures of others.

In this tradition, within my community, a part of this academy, I stand in faith, prepared to learn to be one for others, ready to take up responsibility in the world.

I WILL OWN THE ACTIONS OF MY MIND

I WILL JOIN THE DISCOURSE

I STAND IN FAITH

I AM A LION
Student Conduct Code

I. Judicial Affairs Mission Statement

Loyola Marymount University (hereinafter “LMU” or “University”) provides its Students with an academic environment conducive to the pursuit of knowledge. This academic environment is based upon accountability, integrity, respect and trust among all members of the University Community.

Operating within the context of the University’s mission, the Department of Judicial Affairs seeks to maintain the University’s academic environment by educating and upholding community standards. The Department of Judicial Affairs supports the educational mission of the University by administering the Student Conduct Code (“the Code” or “Student Conduct Code”) in a manner that educates Students, holds them accountable for Student Conduct Code violations and helps them grow into more responsible and community-minded persons.

II. General Guidelines

It is the intention of the Student Conduct Code to clarify the standards of behavior essential to the University’s educational mission and its community life. Excepting Loyola Law School students (“Law School Students”) who are subject to the Law School’s disciplinary code, the Student Conduct Code is applicable to all LMU Students—undergraduate and graduate. Students are also responsible, and will be held accountable, for the conduct of their Guests.

A. Interpretations of the Student Conduct Code

Student Conduct Code regulations are set forth in writing in order to give Students general notice of prohibited conduct. The Code and its regulations are intended to be read broadly and are not designed to define misconduct in exhaustive terms. Attempts to commit acts prohibited by this Code shall be handled and remedied in the same manner and to the same extent as completed violations.

B. Jurisdiction of the University

Jurisdiction extends to conduct that occurs on University premises, in Study Abroad programs or at University events, programs or activities, on and off campus, as well as to other off-campus misconduct that adversely affects the University, Students, the University's reputation or good will and/or the pursuit of the University’s mission, goals and objectives.

C. Inherent Authority

The University reserves the right to take necessary and appropriate action to protect the safety and well-being of the University and University Community. The University also reserves the right to take necessary and appropriate action as a result of Student incidents off campus that may adversely affect the well-being, reputation or good will of the University, University Community, University Community members and/or the pursuit of the University’s mission, goals or objectives.

D. Code as Superseding Authority
This Code shall supersede any and all regulations and/or decisions made by Student Organizations and their affiliates including, but not limited to, the Associated Students of Loyola Marymount University (ASLMU), Graduate Students of LMU (GSLMU), Greek Council, Resident Housing Association and the Service Organization Council.

E. Student Participation
Students are asked to assume positions of responsibility in connection with the enforcement of the Student Conduct Code so that they might contribute their skills and insights toward the resolution of Student Conduct Code matters. However, final authority in Student Conduct Code matters is vested in the University administration and primarily with the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs.

F. Focus of the Proceedings
The primary focus of the inquiry in Student Conduct Code proceedings shall be to determine if the subject Student is responsible or not responsible for the alleged violation of the Student Conduct Code and, if the Student is found to be responsible for a violation, to provide the appropriate remedy. Proceedings shall be prompt, fair and impartial. In keeping with the mission of the Department of Judicial Affairs and purpose of the Code, Student Conduct Code proceedings do not, and are not intended to, emulate the criminal justice system, its processes and/or procedures. Student Conduct Code proceedings are intended to be educational and less formal, less adversarial and less complex than criminal justice processes and procedures. Formal rules of evidence shall not be applicable nor shall deviations from prescribed procedures necessarily invalidate a Student Conduct Code decision or proceeding.

G. Violations of Law and the Student Conduct Code
Students may be accountable criminally, civilly and/or to the University for acts that constitute violations of federal, state or local law and of this Student Conduct Code. Because of the need to efficiently, effectively and promptly protect the academic environment, University life and operations, Student Conduct Code proceedings will normally proceed without regard to or for the pendency of criminal or civil proceedings, and Student Conduct Code proceedings are not subject to challenge on the grounds that criminal or civil charges involving the same incident/conduct are being investigated, prosecuted or have been reduced or dismissed.

Students subject to actual or potential criminal charges relating to conduct alleged in pending Student Conduct Code proceedings may assert their Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination during Student Conduct Code proceedings. While no inference of responsibility for Student Conduct Code violations will be drawn because of the assertion of the Fifth Amendment privilege, the Judicial Officer(s) will nonetheless evaluate all the other information and evidence in making their determination.
H. Burden of Proof
The burden of proof shall be upon the Complainant who must establish the responsibility of the Respondent for the alleged Student Conduct Code violations by a preponderance of the evidence.

I. Statute of Limitations
Unless the law requires a longer period of limitation, as with incidents involving sexual or interpersonal misconduct, a Student Conduct Code complaint against the Respondent must be filed within one calendar year of the conduct alleged to be a violation.

J. Student Mail
The Department of Judicial Affairs will, at its discretion, communicate to all Students via any one or more of the following methods: official University e-mail account, U.S. Mail, parcel delivery (e.g. UPS, FedEx), and/or personal hand delivery. Students should normally expect that the Department of Judicial Affairs’ primary medium of communication will be through their official University e-mail account. Students are held responsible and accountable for retrieving communications from their official University e-mail account on a daily basis. Failure to do so is not an acceptable excuse for delaying the judicial processes.

K. Student Organizations
Student Organizations may be charged with the violation of any section of the Code or violation of any published University policies and procedures. A Student Organization and its officers may be held collectively or individually responsible when those associated with the Student Organization violate this Code, particularly when those involved have received the tacit or overt consent or encouragement of the organization, its leaders, officers or spokespersons. The officer(s), leader(s) or any identifiable spokesperson(s) for a Student Organization may be directed by the Dean of Students or a designee to take appropriate action designed to prevent or end violations of this Code by the Student Organization. Sanctions for organizational misconduct may include revocation or denial of registration as well as other appropriate sanctions, pursuant to Section V of this Code.

The Department of Judicial Affairs may notify any and all necessary University officials who act in a liaison or advisory capacity for the subject Student Organization(s) of alleged violations of the Code by the Student Organization(s) and the outcome of proceedings regarding alleged violations by Student Organization(s). Student Organizations with a national governing body may be permitted to substitute one Advisor outside of the LMU community if an on-campus Advisor is not reasonably available to assist, but that outside Advisor may not be a lawyer or law student.

L. Reservation of Rights
The University expressly reserves the right to revise, supplement or withdraw any Code section, University policy or portion of a University policy periodically as it deems necessary.
Upon the declaration of a campus emergency, all student policies and procedures remain in effect. However, the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs, or his or her designee, may temporarily suspend and/or revise existing policies, procedures or processes for the health and safety of the campus community and to assist and support the University’s efforts during the emergency and subsequent recovery.

M. Knowledge and Awareness of Policies and Code
Students are expected to know and understand University policies. Ignorance is not an acceptable justification or defense for committing violations of University policies or this Code. Lack of intent or awareness of such policies or Code will not be accepted as an excuse or defense for violations, and will generally subject the Respondent to the same consequences as deliberate violations.

N. Definitions
As used in this Code, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

1. “Advisor” means any current LMU Student, faculty, staff or religious community member, but specifically excludes Law School Students, Law School faculty and Law School staff. Off-campus individuals, parents, family members, attorneys, alumni/ae and those persons who have no affiliation with the University are expressly excluded from the definition of “Advisor” and cannot serve as Advisors. Current faculty or staff cannot act as an Advisor to their own family members. In conformity with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), in incidents involving charges of sexual and interpersonal misconduct including Dating Violence, Domestic Violence and Stalking, (as referenced under Section IX of the Student-on-Student Sexual & Interpersonal Misconduct Policy and Protocol) the definition of Advisor is expanded to include any advisor of the Complainant’s or Respondent’s choice.

13. “Institution” and “University” mean Loyola Marymount University.

14. “Organization” means any number of persons who have complied with University requirements for registration as one of the three types of Student Organizations: Registered Student Organization, Affiliated Student Organization or Sponsored University Organization.

16. “Reckless Behavior or Endangerment” means conduct that one should reasonably be expected to know would create a substantial risk of harm to persons or property or that would otherwise be likely to result in interference with normal University life, operations or University-sponsored activities.

17. “Respondent” means the individual(s) against whom a Student Conduct Code complaint is made.

18. “Retaliation” is any adverse, non-permitted action taken against a person in response to an action, injury or protected activity, including, but not limited to, reporting a violation of policy, assisting someone with a report of a violation of a policy or participating in any manner in an investigation or resolution of a report of a policy violation. Retaliation can include, but is not limited to, threats, intimidation, coercion, harassment, reprisals, spreading negative information about an individual, exclusions from academic and non-academic programs and/or adverse actions related to employment (including, but not limited to, conduct that is undertaken in whole or in part through the use of electronic messaging services, commercial mobile services, electronic communications, social media and/or other technology).

19. “Sexual Assault” means engaging in sexual intercourse, or any of the sexual activities listed below, with another person without that person’s consent. Sexual Assault includes, but is not limited to, rape, sexual battery, anal intercourse, oral copulation or penetration of a body cavity by a foreign object. Sexual intercourse includes the penetration, however slight, of the vagina or anus with any object or body part and of the mouth with a body part and/or object in a sexual manner.

20. “Sexual Harassment” means unwelcome verbal, non-verbal, physical or visual conduct of a sexual nature (including, but not limited to, conduct or Bullying that is undertaken in whole or in part through the use of electronic messaging services, commercial mobile services, electronic communications, social media or other technology). In accordance with Title IX, Sexual Harassment includes, without limitation, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexual assault, sexual violence and sexual coercion.

21. “Stalking” means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person(s) that would cause a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the Complainant to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or suffer substantial emotional distress. For the purposes of this definition, “course of conduct” is defined as two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly or through third parties, by any action, method, device or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person’s property. For the purposes of this definition “substantial emotional distress” means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

22. “Student” means a person currently enrolled or eligible and intending to enroll in any University program or class during the fall or spring semesters, recess period between semesters or summer period, on or off University campus, and includes all persons taking courses at the University, full-time or part-time, pursuing undergraduate, graduate or professional studies. However, the term “Student” does not include Law School Students or LMU Extension Students. 23. “University Community” means Students, staff, faculty, administration and religious community members of the University, but not their counterparts at the Law School.

26. “Witness” means any person, excluding experts, called upon to furnish relevant knowledge or information relating to an incident who is not a Complainant or Respondent.

27. The terms “will” or “shall” are used in the imperative sense. The term “may” is used in the permissive sense.

Excluding a Student from campus, University Premises, University facilities or events means that the Student is not allowed to be on the campus, University Premises, at University facilities or in attendance of an event for or during specific time periods. Exclusion may include authorizing limited access to limited University Premises or facilities for specific purposes (e.g. to attend class), but otherwise banning access or exclusion from specific University Premises (e.g. University housing facilities).

D. Disciplinary Probation

The Student is informed that they are no longer in “good disciplinary standing” with the University for duration of probation. Students are given written notice that any further infractions of the Code or University policies may result in further sanctions. The Student may also be restricted from eligibility for or participation in present and future student and University activities. This includes, but is not limited to, co-curricular and organizational activities, ASLMU positions and activities, Resident Advisor positions, Study Abroad programs, orientation leadership positions and other student leadership positions. Notification of disciplinary probation may be sent to the appropriate University offices and officials.
E. Housing Probation
The Student is given written notice that any further infractions of the Code, University policies or Housing policies may result in removal from University housing and/or determination that the student be ineligible for or restricted from present and future housing opportunities. The Student is required to meet with his/her Resident Director or Housing Designee within two weeks of being placed on housing probation.

F. Removal From or Relocation Within University Housing
Students who demonstrate that they are unable to live in University housing facilities as demonstrated by material and/or repeated Code or policy violations may be relocated to another University housing facility, or have their University housing license agreement terminated, and if removed may be banned from University housing facilities and ineligible for future University housing, including summer housing.

G. Ineligibility for Graduation and Participation in Ceremonies
Sanctions for violations of the Code may include prohibition from participation in graduation ceremonies, and Students, charged with alleged Code violations prior to graduation that charges have not yet been adjudicated, may in the University’s discretion be prohibited from graduating, participation in graduation ceremonies or receiving a diploma/degree until the Student Conduct Code proceedings have been adjudicated and, if found responsible, sanctions completed.

H. Restitution
The Student is required to make financial payment to the University for amounts assessed or incurred as a result of a determined Code violation. Restitution payments between individual Students, Groups or Student Organizations will not be sanctioned, mandated or administered.

I. Fines
A reasonable monetary fine may be assessed to a Student as a deterrent to future policy violations.

J. Community Service/Educational Project
Community service, work on campus, research projects or other appropriate learning experiences may be assigned.

K. Disciplinary Warning
Without placing a Student on Disciplinary Probation, the Student is given verbal and/or written warning that future misconduct may result in more severe disciplinary action.

L. Drug Testing
In response to violations of the Code relating to use or possession of illegal drugs, controlled substances, Salvia divinorum or drug paraphernalia, the sanctions may include drug testing for a defined period of time.
M. Educational Programs
The Student is assigned to attend educational programming (e.g. Heads UP!, Choice Theory) or participate in online educational programming (e.g., E-Chug, E-Toke, Under the Influence, Marijuana 101) to increase awareness of the effects and issues related to alcohol, drugs and other behaviors. When possible, a student-run Alcoholics Anonymous is offered on campus as well as Al-Anon.

N. Parental Notification
Students in violation of alcohol or drug policies may be required to write a letter to their parents describing the incident and what outcomes resulted from the conduct process.

O. Other Sanctions
The University and its Judicial Officers and Hearing Boards retain the right to impose additional and/or different sanctions according to the specific circumstances and needs of a situation including, but not limited to, loss of on-campus driving privileges, loss of network privileges, other conditions and restrictions and meetings with professional staff and/or faculty members.

VI. Roles and Responsibilities
Within the student conduct process several members of the University Community play critical roles and have varying responsibilities.

A. The Role and Responsibilities of the Chief Judicial Officer
1. Supervising, training and advising all Judicial Officers, Hearing Boards and Student Conduct Committee members.
2. Reviewing and approving the recommended decisions of the Judicial Officers, Hearing Boards and the Student Conduct Committee except as otherwise provided in this Code. This review may include the alteration, deferral or suspension of any recommended decision and the imposition of conditions.
3. Ensuring the maintenance of all student disciplinary records on file in the Department of Judicial Affairs.
4. Administering procedures for resolution of a Student’s challenge of bias for any Judicial Officer or Hearing Board member.
5. Submitting a statistical report to the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or designee each semester reporting the number of cases referred to the department, the number of cases resulting in disciplinary action and the range of sanctions imposed.

B. The Roles and Responsibilities of the Judicial Officers and Hearing Boards
1. Hearings or other proceedings as provided in this Code may be held before a Judicial Officer or an applicable Hearing Board.
2. The Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or designee shall appoint Judicial Officers and Hearing Boards.

3. The Judicial Officers and Hearing Board members shall develop procedures consistent with provisions in this Code. All procedures must be approved by the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or designee.

4. In the event of a vacancy or disqualification of a Judicial Officer or Hearing Board member, the disciplinary matter shall be assigned to another Judicial Officer or Hearing Board by the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or designee.

5. Judicial Officers may be called upon to participate in the annual review of the Student Conduct Code.

C. The Roles and Responsibilities of the Student Conduct Committee

1. Appeals or other proceedings (de novo) as provided in this Code may be held before the Student Conduct Committee.

2. The Student Conduct Committee may develop procedures consistent with provisions in this Code. Procedures must be approved by the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or designee.

3. The Student Conduct Committee members shall be selected as follows:
   a. The ASLMU President shall recommend members from the undergraduate student body.
   b. The Student Housing Office shall recommend Resident Housing Association student members and two Resident Ministers as members.
   c. The GSLMU President shall recommend graduate student(s) as members.
   d. The Senior Vice President for Student Affairs shall appoint a minimum of two faculty/staff members, one of which shall be from the Division of Student Affairs.
   e. Each meeting, one of the Senior Vice Presidential appointees shall be designated by the Senior Vice President or designee as the presiding officer of the Student Conduct Committee.
   f. The Chief Judicial Officer or designee shall serve as an ex officio member.

4. The Senior Vice President for Student Affairs shall appoint all members of the Student Conduct Committee.

5. The term of office for the student or faculty/staff Student Conduct Committee members shall be a minimum of one year as determined by the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs. Members may be re-appointed for additional terms.

6. Prior to participating in Student Conduct Committee deliberations, new members of the Student Conduct Committee will participate in one orientation session offered at least once each academic year by the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or designee.

7. Student members of the Student Conduct Committee who are charged with any violation of this Code or with a criminal offense may be suspended from their judicial positions by the Chief Judicial Officer while charges are pending against them. Students found responsible for any such violation or offense may be disqualified from any further participation in the University judicial system by the Chief Judicial Officer.

8. In the event of a vacancy, suspension or disqualification of a Student Conduct Committee member, the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs shall fill the vacancy.

9. A quorum for the Student Conduct Committee shall be three members with a minimum of one Student and one faculty member.

VII. Student Procedural Protection

A. Referrals

Suspected violations of this Code, including those discovered during the adjudication and/or investigation of Student Conduct Code proceedings, shall be submitted to the Department of Judicial Affairs. Persons making such referrals (the Complainants) are required to provide information and evidence pertinent to the case and may be asked to appear before a Judicial Officer/Hearing Board and/or the Student Conduct Committee.

B. Student Conduct Code Hearings

The Chief Judicial Officer or designee shall review referrals to determine whether or not there is sufficient evidence to charge a Student with a violation of the Code and to hold a Student Conduct Code hearing.

C. Due Process

Students charged with Code violations are accorded the following procedural protections:

1. A written or electronic notice (via the official University e-mail account) of misconduct charges, the location of copies of the Student Conduct Code, a scheduled hearing with a Judicial Officer or applicable Hearing Board and timely notice of that hearing. Students who fail to appear after timely notice will be deemed to have accepted responsibility for the charges asserted against them;

2. A hearing during which the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board shall specify the nature of the alleged misconduct and the basis for the charge, including the time, date and place where it is alleged to have occurred. Students (Complainants and Respondents) shall have the opportunity to present evidence relevant to the alleged misconduct and to respond to the evidence against them including the right to offer evidence and call appropriate fact (non-expert) witnesses. Absent express permission, expert witnesses are not allowed and character witnesses are disfavored. Students (Complainants and Respondents) may utilize the assistance of an Advisor during the hearing;

3. During the hearing, the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board shall explain the University’s judicial system and Student rights and provide a copy of the Student Conduct Code. The Judicial Officer/Hearing Board shall also explain the quasi-confidential nature of the judicial process and the fact that the hearing may become a part of the file relating to the case;
4. Reasonable access to the evidence supporting the charge will be made available to the Students (Complainants and Respondents), upon request, prior to the hearing;

5. If a further hearing is necessary, a supplemental proceeding will be scheduled;
   a. Students (Complainants and Respondents) or the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board may submit new and/or additional evidence and call appropriate fact (non-expert) witnesses at the supplemental proceeding. Absent express permission, expert witnesses are not allowed and character witnesses are disfavored. Students (Complainants and Respondents) shall have the opportunity to respond to any new or additional evidence that is presented for the first time at the supplemental proceeding;
   b. Students (Complainants and Respondents) may utilize the assistance of an Advisor during the supplemental hearing;

6. Students who wish to have the assistance of an Advisor must inform the presiding Judicial Officer in writing or via e-mail at least two days prior to the scheduled date of the hearing. The Advisor’s role is to assist students in understanding the judicial process during hearings. Advisors may not address the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board or play any other role during hearings. All communication involving Advisors must be between the Advisor and Student. An Advisor may not appear in lieu of the Student;

7. Sanctions shall be levied if it is determined that the Student is responsible for the violation. If not, the charge will be dismissed;

8. Students (Complainants and Respondents) may have the assistance of fact (non-expert) witnesses. Expert witnesses are not allowed and character witnesses are disfavored. The Judicial Officer/Hearing Board must be notified prior to the hearing that the Student plans to provide witnesses. These witnesses must have relevant knowledge and information pertaining to the case;

9. Complaints will be promptly investigated. In normal circumstances, complaints will be investigated and at least an initial determination made within 60 days of the receipt of the complaint;

10. For compliance with Clery Act records retention requirements, all official judicial correspondence will be retained for a minimum of seven years;

11. A Student’s judicial history and record is cumulative; therefore increased sanctions may be imposed to take into consideration the Student’s overall record of violations of all types, not just those of a similar type.

VIII. Hearing Procedures
The following procedural guidelines shall be applicable in judicial hearings before the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board:

A. The Judicial Officer/Hearing Board has the right to request the presence of and interview witnesses.

B. Hearings will generally be private except for Judicial Officers/Hearing Boards, parties and Advisors. Recording devices (audio and/or video) of any kind are not permitted for use by the Students, witnesses or Advisors. Nothing herein shall prevent the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board from arranging to have the Complainant and the Respondent participate in the hearing before the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board without the ability to observe or physically see the other. If observation is permitted, it may be by electronic or other means intended to screen the parties’ view of each other.

C. The Judicial Officer/Hearing Board shall exercise control over the procedures to avoid needless consumption of time. Any person, including the Advisor, who is disruptive during the hearing, refuses to follow the rules or procedures and/or who fails to adhere to the admonitions and rulings of the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board may be excluded from the proceedings.

D. The decision of the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board must include a summary of the testimony, findings, decision and applicable sanction(s). The decision shall be sufficiently detailed to permit review as provided in this Code.

E. Prior to the hearing, Students (Complainants and Respondents) may challenge a Judicial Officer/Hearing Board member on the grounds of personal bias. Any such challenge must be made in writing to the Dean of Students or designee not less than two days prior to the hearing. The disqualification challenge of a Judicial Officer/Hearing Board member shall be determined by the Dean of Students or designee. If a challenge is sustained, the charge shall be referred to another Judicial Officer/Hearing Board member.

F. Witnesses shall be asked to affirm that their testimony is truthful and may be subject to charges of providing false information pursuant to Section IV(H) of this Code.

G. The burden of proof shall be upon the Complainant who must establish the responsibility of the Respondent by a preponderance of the evidence.

H. Except as provided herein, formal rules of evidence and discovery shall not be applicable in proceedings conducted pursuant to this Code. The Judicial Officer/Hearing Board shall give effect to recognized rules of privacy (including the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act [FERPA]) and privilege but shall otherwise admit all matters into evidence which a reasonable person would accept as having probative value in the conduct of their affairs. Unduly repetitious or irrelevant evidence may be excluded.

I. Written statements shall not be admitted into evidence unless signed by the affiant and witnessed by a person designated by the Dean of Students or designee.

J. A Student with a case assigned to a Student Hearing Board has the option to have the matter heard by a Judicial Officer. Notice of such election must be given to the presiding Judicial Officer no less than two business days prior to the date of the hearing.

IX. Appeal Procedures

A. Except for appeals of charges of sexual and interpersonal misconduct, including Dating Violence, Domestic Violence and Stalking, which are authorized under Section X(R) of this Code, any Judicial Officer or Hearing Board disciplinary sanction not resulting in suspension or dismissal may be appealed by the Respondent to the Student Conduct Committee on one or more of the following grounds:

1. The sanction is substantially disproportionate to the offense;
2. The procedures provided for in this Code were not materially followed resulting in significant prejudice to the Student;
3. New relevant evidence is available which in the exercise of reasonable diligence could not have been produced at the time of the hearing;
4. The decision is not supported by substantial evidence.

B. All petitions for appeals shall be submitted to:
The Student Conduct Committee
c/o The Department of Judicial Affairs
Malone 355
JudicialAffairs@lmu.edu

C. Appeal petitions must be submitted via written (typed or printed) statement by the Student and received by the Student Conduct Committee c/o The Department of Judicial Affairs within three days from the date of the imposition of the original decision. Appeal petitions may not be submitted by Advisors or third parties (including, without limitation, lawyers or Law School Students) on behalf of the Student. Failure to appeal within the allotted time will render the original decision final and conclusive. Failure to comply with these procedures may result in the rejection of an appeal petition.

D. Pursuant to either Section IX(A) or Section X(A) the appeal petition must be accompanied by a written statement in support of an appeal. Upon notification of the receipt of a proper and timely appeal petition, the Chief Judicial Officer or designee shall convene the Student Conduct Committee.

E. On appeal pursuant to Section IX(A), the Student Conduct Committee will review the Judicial Officer's/Hearing Board's summary of the testimony, findings and decision and the recommended sanction, the Student’s disciplinary history and the written statement of the Student filed with the appeal petition. The Student Conduct Committee may, but is not required to, request either the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board or the Student to submit additional information in writing. If the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board is requested to submit additional information, the Student shall be entitled to reply in writing to the additional written information supplied by the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board.

F. The Student Conduct Committee shall give deference to the determinations of the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board, and may make one of the following recommendations:
1. Recommended sanctions may be reduced, if found to be substantially disproportionate to the offense; increased, if found to be an inadequate response to the misconduct; or affirmed.
2. The case may be referred back to the Dean of Students or designee for reassignment to a new Judicial Officer/Hearing Board if specified procedural errors in interpretation of this Code were so substantial as to effectively deny the student a fair hearing or if significant new evidence became available which could not have been discovered by a properly diligent Student before or during the original hearing.

3. The case may be dismissed if the decision is not supported by substantial evidence.

4. The Student Conduct Committee will not alter a decision of the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board if there is any amount of evidence, or reasonable inferences arising therefrom which supports the decision, regardless of the amount or quality of contradictory evidence or conflicting evidence.

G. A tie vote in an appellate proceeding will result in affirmation of the original decision.

X. De Novo Hearing Procedures

The following procedural guidelines shall be applicable in de novo hearings before the Student Conduct Committee:

A. Except for appeals of sexual and interpersonal misconduct including Dating Violence, Domestic Violence and Stalking charges, which appeals are authorized under subsection (R) below, any recommended Judicial Officer or Hearing Board disciplinary sanction resulting in suspension or dismissal from the University may be appealed by the Respondent to the Student Conduct Committee for de novo review. The sanction may be appealed to the Student Conduct Committee on the following grounds:

1. The sanction is substantially disproportionate to the offense.

2. The procedures provided for in this Code were not materially followed, resulting in significant prejudice to the Student.

3. New relevant evidence is available within the exercise of reasonable diligence that could not have been produced at the time of the hearing.

4. The decision is not supported by substantial evidence.

If the appeal petition requesting a de novo hearing is granted, the Student shall receive a de novo hearing before the Student Conduct Committee.

B. The presiding officer may request the presence of fact witnesses upon his/her motion, upon the motion of the Student Conduct Committee or of the Complainant or Respondent. Requests will be determined and approved or disapproved by the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or a designee, and shall be transmitted to the witness by personal delivery or U.S. Mail, or by e-mail to the witnesses’ official University e-mail account. University Students and employees are expected to comply with requests issued pursuant to this procedure, unless compliance would result in significant and unavoidable personal hardship or substantial interference with normal University activities, in which case they must notify the Chief Judicial Officer of the factual basis of the hardship or interference prior to appearing before the Committee. The Chief Judicial Officer will then make a ruling on whether the appearance request will be withdrawn.

C. Respondents who fail to appear at a de novo hearing after proper notice will be deemed to have abandoned their appeal and to have accepted responsibility for the charged misconduct.

D. Hearings will generally be private except for Student Conduct Committee personnel, the Complainant and Respondent and their Advisors.

E. The presiding officer shall exercise control over the hearing to avoid needless consumption of time. Any person, including an Advisor, who disrupts a hearing or who fails to adhere to the admonitions or rulings of the presiding officer may be excluded from the proceedings.

F. Hearings may be recorded and transcribed by the Student Conduct Committee only. If a recording or transcription is not made, the decision of the Student Conduct Committee must include a summary of the testimony, findings and recommended decision, and recommended sanction if a violation is found.

G. Recording units (audio and/or video) are not permitted for use by the Student (Complainant or Respondent), witnesses and/or Advisors.

H. Concurrent with the filing of an appeal petition, Complainant or Respondent may challenge a member of the Student Conduct Committee on the grounds of personal bias.

All disqualification challenges of Student Conduct Committee members shall be determined by the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or designee. If a challenge is sustained, the proceedings will continue without the participation of the disqualified member.

I. Witnesses shall be asked to affirm that their testimony is truthful and may be subject to charges of providing false information pursuant to Section IV(H) of this Code.

J. Prospective witnesses, other than the Complainant and the Respondent, may be excluded from the hearing during the testimony of other witnesses. All parties, Advisors and witnesses shall be excluded during Committee deliberations. Nothing herein shall prevent the Student Conduct Committee from arranging to have the Complainant and the Respondent view and/or participate in the hearing before the Student Conduct Committee without the ability to observe or physically see the other. If observation is permitted it may be by electronic or other means intended to screen the parties’ view of each other.

K. The burden of proof shall be upon the Complainant who must establish the responsibility of the Respondent by a preponderance of the evidence.

L. Except as provided herein, formal rules of evidence and discovery shall not be applicable in these proceedings conducted pursuant to this Code. The Student Conduct Committee shall give effect to the recognized rules of privacy (including the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act [FERPA]) and privilege but shall otherwise admit all matters into evidence which reasonable persons would accept as having probative value in the conduct of their affairs. Unduly repetitious or irrelevant evidence may be excluded.

M. Affidavits shall not be admitted into evidence unless signed by the affiant and witnessed by a person designated by the Dean of Students or designee.
N. The Student Conduct Committee may take judicial notice of matters that would be general knowledge of other University Students.

O. The Student Conduct Committee shall be provided copies of the Student’s disciplinary record when reference to the Student’s disciplinary history is included in the decision made by the Judicial Officer/Hearing Board.

P. A quorum for the Student Conduct Committee shall be three members with a minimum of one Student and one faculty member.

Q. Procedural, evidentiary and final recommendations of the Student Conduct Committee shall be by majority vote of the members present and voting. A tie vote in a de novo proceeding will result in dismissal of the charge. Procedural or evidentiary issues in any hearing before the Student Conduct Committee shall be determined by the Committee’s presiding officer in accordance with this Code. The Student Conduct Committee shall give effect to the recognized rules of privacy (including the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act [FERPA]) and privilege but shall otherwise admit all matters into evidence which a reasonable person would accept as having probative value in the conduct of their affairs. Unduly repetitious or irrelevant evidence may be excluded.

R. In regards to appeals of sexual misconduct and misconduct including Dating Violence, Domestic Violence and Stalking, determinations resulting in either a dismissal of the charge or imposition of any sanction against the Respondent, both Complainants and Respondents may appeal determinations of sexual and interpersonal misconduct charges under this Code by providing written notice within three days. Appeals of sexual and interpersonal misconduct determinations shall be appealable as provided for in this Section X.

XI. Exceptional Procedures

A. Violations of this Code that in ordinary circumstances may not result in a sanction of suspension or dismissal may nonetheless result in a sanction of suspension or dismissal if, in the view of the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs, suspension or dismissal is appropriate under all the facts and circumstances (e.g. intentional, malicious or aggravated violation, history of repeated Code violations, etc.).

B. The Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or a designee may suspend a Student for an interim period pending Student Conduct Code proceedings or medical evaluation. Such interim suspension becomes immediately effective without prior notice whenever there is reasonable suspicion that the continued presence of the Student on the University campus poses a substantial threat to the health, safety or well-being of members of the University community or to unreasonably interfere with the stability and continuance of normal University functions.

C. A Student suspended on an interim basis shall be given an opportunity to appear personally for an interim suspension hearing before the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or a designee within three days from the effective date of the interim suspension to present his or her case to discontinue the interim suspension in accordance with Section XI(D) below.
D. An interim suspension hearing shall determine whether the interim suspension should continue through the hearing and determination on the merits of the Student Conduct Code charge(s) because the alleged misconduct and surrounding circumstances reasonably indicate that the continued presence of the Student on campus pending the hearing and determination of the Student Conduct Code charge(s) poses a substantial threat to the health, safety or well-being of members of the University community or unreasonably interferes with the stability and continuance of normal University functions.

E. If, at the interim suspension hearing referenced in Section XI(D) above, the Student’s continued presence is determined to pose a substantial threat to the health, safety or well-being of members of the University community or to unreasonably interfere with the stability and continuance of normal University functions, the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or designee may continue the interim suspension through the conclusion of the proceedings on the alleged Student Conduct Code violation.

F. In cases alleging sexual and interpersonal misconduct including Dating Violence, Domestic Violence and Stalking, the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or a designee may take interim measures, including, but not limited to, academic, residential, transportation and/or employment accommodations, intended to ensure the well-being of the Complainant, the Respondent, the investigatory process and/or the University community while the complaint is being investigated and prior to the determination on the charge. Any such interim measures shall not be referred to or offered as evidence at the hearing on the underlying charge. Any such interim measures shall be designed and implemented in a manner intended to achieve their purpose while at the same time limiting, to the extent practicable, any adverse effect to the Complainant and/or Respondent’s educational program.

G. Final decisions of the Judicial Officer, Hearing Board or the Student Conduct Committee recommending a suspension or dismissal from the University shall be reviewed and approved by the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs. All other final decisions shall be reviewed and approved by the Dean of Students or designee. The reviewing officer may change, defer or suspend the decision and sanction, or impose conditions in connection with any change, deferral or suspension.

H. Unless otherwise determined by the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or designee, the imposition of sanctions will be deferred during the appeal process.

I. A judicial hold may be placed on a Student’s file/account and a notation entered on the Student’s University transcript when the Student has been dismissed or suspended from the University or has officially or unofficially withdrawn, taken a leave of absence or has been academically disqualified while Student Conduct Code proceedings are pending. In addition, when the Student has incomplete sanctions or open judicial cases and leaves the University for any reason, including, but not limited to, leave of absence, withdrawal or academic disqualification, a judicial hold will be placed on the Student’s file/account and the Student may also be prohibited from entering campus during the period of the judicial hold. This judicial hold must be cleared before a Student will be allowed to return to the University.

XII. Judicial Files and Records

A. Case referrals may result in the development of a judicial file in the name of the Respondent that may be voided if the Respondent is found not responsible for the charges.

B. The files of Respondents found responsible for any of the charges against them will be retained as a judicial record for a minimum of seven years from the date of the letter providing notice of the final judicial action.

C. Judicial records may be voided and any records or notations related thereto purged by the Dean of Students for good cause following consideration of a written petition of Respondent. Among the factors considered by the Dean of Students in review of such petitions shall be:

   1. The nature of the charge;
   2. The period of time that has elapsed since the violation;
   3. The present demonstrated demeanor and contrition of the Respondent;
   4. The demonstrated conduct of the Respondent subsequent to the violation; and/or
   5. The nature of the violation and the severity of any damage, injury or harm resulting from it.

Decisions on petitions under this subsection are at the discretion of the Dean of Students.

D. When Students sign a release offered by prospective employers, Study Abroad, University offices or graduate schools, this release allows the University to release student disciplinary information to these parties.
Honor Code and Process

Loyola Marymount University is a community dedicated to academic excellence, student-centered education, and the Jesuit and Marymount traditions. As such, the University expects all members of its community to act with honesty and integrity at all times, especially in their academic work. Academic honesty respects the intellectual and creative work of others, flows from dedication to and pride in performing one's own best work, and is essential if true learning is to take place.

Examples of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to, the following: all acts of cheating on assignments or examinations, or facilitating other students’ cheating; plagiarism; fabrication of data, including the use of false citations; improper use of nonprint media; unauthorized access to computer accounts or files or other privileged information; and improper use of internet sites and resources.

Definitions of Academic Dishonesty

The following are examples of academic dishonesty which may be interpreted as intentional or unintentional. This list is not meant to be exhaustive. It is the student’s responsibility to make sure that his/her work meets the standards of academic honesty set forth in the Honor Code. If the student is unclear about how these definitions and standards apply to his/her work, it is the student’s responsibility to contact the instructor to clarify the ambiguity.

A. Cheating and Facilitating Cheating

1. Possession, distribution, and/or use of unauthorized materials or technology before or during an examination or during the process of preparing a class assignment.
2. Collaboration on class assignments, including in-class and take-home examinations, without the permission of the instructor.
3. Provision of assistance to another student attempting to use unauthorized resources or collaboration on class assignments or examinations.

B. Plagiarism

1. Presentation of someone else’s ideas or work, either in written form or non-print media, as one's own.
2. Omission or improper use of citations in written work.
3. Omission or improper use of credits and attributions in non-print media.

C. Falsification of Data

1. Presentation of altered or fabricated data, such as lab reports, with the intention of misleading the reader.
2. Presentation of forged signatures as authentic.
3. Use of false citations, either incorrect or fabricated, including sources found on the Internet.
D. Unauthorized Access to Computers or Privileged Information
   1. Use of University network and/or computer hardware to gain unauthorized access to files, and alteration or other use of those files.

E. Improper Use of Internet Sites and Resources
   1. Inappropriate use of an Internet source, including, but not limited to, submission of a paper, in part or in its entirety, purchased or otherwise obtained via the Internet, and failure to provide proper citation for sources found on the Internet.

F. Improper Use of Non-Print Media
   1. All above standards apply to non-print media.

G. Group Work—Group and team work are an integral part of the Executive MBA and some other graduate programs. Classmates are encouraged to work with and support each other, as much of the learning results from mutually shared experiences and expertise of classmates. There is a point, however, where students must make their own use of materials and present their own ideas, thoughts, and solutions. Examples where work must be clearly individual include individual papers, exams, and projects. There is a fine line between shared learning and cheating. If the student is unclear between what constitutes group work and what constitutes individual work, it is the student’s responsibility to contact the instructor to clarify the ambiguity.

H. Other Academic Dishonesty
   1. Any other means of violating the standards of academic honesty set out above.

Honor Code Process

This section sets out the process to be followed when an Instructor suspects a violation of the Honor Code. The recommended sanctions are not mandatory, but are intended to guide the Instructor’s discretion. Instructors are encouraged to consult with their colleagues and chairs in making these decisions. This section also outlines the student appeal process for Honor Code violations.

I. Intentional and Unintentional Academic Dishonesty

A. Notification: Instructors will notify the student of the suspected act of academic dishonesty. The student will be given the opportunity to admit, deny, or explain the situation. If the suspected violation of the Honor Code occurs with respect to an assignment that the Instructor has not reviewed until after the class has stopped meeting, the Instructor will send a letter to the permanent address of the student and keep a copy of the letter. Failure to notify will result in a reasonable extension of the student’s time to appeal, but is not in and of itself a defense to the violation of the Honor Code.

B. Determination: If the Instructor determines that a violation has occurred, he/she will next determine whether or not the violation was intentional or unintentional. The distinction between intentional and unintentional violations of academic honesty is not based upon the purely subjective intentions of the student. The question is whether a student who has carefully read the Honor Code should have understood that his/her action violated the Honor Code and standards of academic honesty.

C. Unintentional Violation: If the Instructor believes the violation was unintentional, he/she may take any of the following actions:
   1. Warn student
   2. Require assignment or exam to be resubmitted
   3. Reduce the grade on the assignment, project, or exam

The Instructor shall inform the student of his/her decision and also inform the student of the right to appeal the Instructor’s decision.

D. Intentional Violation: If the Instructor believes the violation is intentional, he/she may take any of the following actions:
   1. Fail the student on the assignment or exam
   2. Fail the student in the course

The Instructor shall inform the student of his/her decision in writing and also inform the student of the right to appeal the Instructor’s decision.

The Instructor may consult with the Chairperson, Program Director, or equivalent and refer the matter directly to the Dean of the Instructor’s college or school with a recommendation that the student be suspended or expelled. Upon such a referral, the Dean shall appoint an Academic Honesty Panel consisting of one Student from the ASLMU Judiciary and two Faculty members for undergraduate students and three faculty members for graduate students.

II. Departmental Appeal

A. The student may appeal the Instructor’s decision under Section I(C) or (D) to the Department Chairperson, Program Director, or equivalent. In accordance with the grade appeal policy in the University Bulletin, the student will be required to make his/her appeal in writing no later than three weeks into the semester following the decision.

B. If either the student or Instructor wishes, he/she may appeal the decision of the Department Chair, Program Director, or equivalent to the Dean of the Instructor’s college or school, who will refer the matter to the Academic Honesty Panel. 1. It will determine whether there is clear and convincing evidence that the student has violated the Honor Code. The student is entitled to the presumption of innocence and the right to review and respond to all evidence and information relevant to the Panel’s decision.

2. Upon the finding of clear and convincing evidence of a violation, the Panel is to determine the appropriate penalty. With regard to the appropriateness of serious recommendations such as suspension and expulsion, the Panel shall take into account the following factors:
   a. the severity of the violation;
   b. whether the violation is an isolated instance, or part of a pattern of two or more violations; and
   c. other mitigating or extenuating circumstances.

D. The recommendation of the Academic Honesty Panel, along with an explanation of the reason for the recommendation, will be reported in writing to the Dean of the Instructor’s college or school. The Dean will normally follow the recommendation of the Panel. However, the Dean’s decision is final.

E. The Dean will inform the student and Instructor, in writing, of his/her decision. The Dean will also report his/her decision to the Provost/Executive Vice President. The Office of the Provost/Executive Vice President will keep a permanent, confidential record of all proceedings of the Academic Honesty Panel.

I. Introduction
The University’s Anti-Hazing Policy adheres to California state law (California Penal Code), sections of which are excerpted below; and is subject to change in order to maintain consistency with state law:

1. 245.6 (b) “Hazing” means any method of initiation or preinitiation into a Student Organization or student body, whether or not the organization or body is officially recognized by an educational institution, which is likely to cause serious bodily injury to any former, current or prospective Student of any school, community college, college, university or other educational institution in this state. The term “hazing” does not include customary athletic events or school-sanctioned events.

2. 245.6 (c) A violation of this section that does not result in serious bodily injury is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than $100, nor more than $5,000, or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or both.

3. 245.6 (d) Any person who personally engages in hazing that results in death or serious bodily injury as defined in paragraph (4) of subdivision (f) of Section 243 of the Penal Code, is guilty of either a misdemeanor or a felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment in county jail not exceeding one year, or by imprisonment pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1170.

4. 245.6 (e) The person against whom the hazing is directed may commence a civil action for injury or damages. The action may be brought against any participants in the hazing, or any organization to which the Student is seeking membership whose agents, directors, trustees, managers or officers authorized, requested, commanded, participated in or ratified the hazing.

II. Policy
All acts of hazing by a Student, Group or organization and/or any of its members, alumni or other associated individuals are prohibited. It is a violation of California law and LMU policy for Students to engage in any activity that falls within the legal or this policy definition of hazing. As referenced above, hazing is a broad term encompassing actions or activities often associated with initiations or Group associations which do not contribute to the positive development of a person; or which inflict or intend to cause mental, physical or emotional harm or anxieties; or which demean, degrade or disgrace any person regardless of location, intent or consent of participants.

In addition, hazing is often generally defined as any action or situation which endangers the mental, physical or emotional health of a Student for the purpose of initiation or full admission, or affiliation with any organization operating under the sanction of LMU. The University believes that any activity which promotes a class or caste system within organizations is inappropriate. Subservience in any form is unacceptable.
Subsequently, activities which facilitate inappropriate levels of authority over other Students may be deemed as hazing and will not be allowed.

III. Enforcement

It is the responsibility of all Students to be knowledgeable of this policy. It is also the responsibility of all Groups and Organization officers and advisors to inform members, associates and alumni of this Anti-Hazing Policy and to ensure that all Groups and Organizations adhere to this policy. Further, any Student found to be involved in any hazing activity will face disciplinary action and is subjected to a maximum sanction of dismissal from the University. In addition, any Organization found to be involved in any hazing activity, will face disciplinary action and the University may withdraw its official registration. Students and their Groups and Organizations are also subject to criminal and civil action as it relates to California law.

for the pendency of criminal or civil proceedings, and Student Conduct Code proceedings are not subject to challenge on the grounds that criminal or civil charges involving the same incident/conduct are being investigated, prosecuted or have been reduced or dismissed.

Students subject to actual or potential criminal charges relating to conduct alleged in pending Student Conduct Code proceedings may assert their Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination during Student Conduct Code proceedings. While no inference of responsibility for Student Conduct Code violations will be drawn because of the assertion of the Fifth Amendment privilege, the Judicial Officer(s) will nonetheless evaluate all the other evidence in making their determination.

Students living off campus should make themselves familiar with the Good Samaritan & Self-Reporting Policy.
I. Introduction
As a University dedicated to fostering the dignity of each person, Loyola Marymount University strives to encourage learning and promote justice. The University seeks to create an environment that is free of exploitation and unlawful harassment or discrimination that undermines the integrity of the institution.

II. Policy
Loyola Marymount University prohibits consensual relationships of a dating, intimate and/or sexual nature between faculty or staff and any Student with whom the faculty or staff member is in a direct/power relationship. Furthermore, the University strongly discourages these consensual relationships even when no power relationship exists. This policy is rooted in the recognition that faculty-or staff-Student relationships may be inherently unequal and contain an element of superiority or power. Consensual relationships between faculty or staff and Students may give rise to the perception by others that there is favoritism or bias in educational decisions affecting Students. These perceptions undermine the spirit of trust and mutual respect that is important to the University environment. This policy further strives to provide an environment that is free from Sexual Harassment.

III. Definitions Related To Policy

Consensual Relationship—Dating and/or sexual relationships willingly undertaken by the parties.

Direct/Power Relationship—Faculty-or staff-Student relationships in which the faculty or staff member is in a position of actual or apparent authority in activities including without limitation, teaching, advising, mentoring, supervising, directing, evaluating and/or conducting research with the Student.

Faculty—An employee of the University that has instructional, advisory, evaluative, supervisory and/or other professional responsibilities. The category of Faculty includes: Full-Time, Instructor, Assistant Professor, Associate Professor, Professor, Emeritus Faculty, Visiting Professor, Part-Time, Lecturer, Adjunct Professor, Clinical Professor, Clinical Supervisor, Teaching Assistant or Administrative Faculty.

Staff—An employee of the University other than faculty.

Student—An individual enrolled, or eligible to continue, in any full-time or part-time undergraduate or graduate program of Loyola Marymount University. The Faculty/Staff-Student Dating Policy does not alter, but is in addition to, all federal and state laws regulating interpersonal conduct.
Fraternity and Sorority Policy

I. Introduction
A. Loyola Marymount University has developed criteria for the recognition of Greek-lettered organizations. The relationship between these recognized organizations and the University is based on trust, collaboration, cooperation and the resulting mutual benefits to the University and the Greek community.

B. Greek organizations enhance participation in the cultural, academic, social, service, philanthropic and spiritual life of LMU. The individual and group performance of members of Greek organizations should always uphold those values stated in the chapters' constitutions and/or by-laws. By virtue of the University's recognition of each organization's stated principles and ideals, the University expects that the goals of Greek organizations will be implemented in a manner that is compatible with the goals and mission of the LMU community. Therefore, the University will hold each organization to the standards and policies set forth by their national organizations in areas including but not limited to academics, programming, risk management, new member and member education, service and values congruence.

C. It is the practice of LMU to recognize only fraternity and sorority chapters that are chartered solely at the University. Accordingly, the University generally will not recognize or sanction events and activities/circumstances where students are involved via affiliation with other fraternal organizations not recognized at LMU.

D. As stated in LMU’s goals, the ultimate objective of the LMU experience, both in and outside of the classroom, is to educate and develop mature, responsible members of the community. Accordingly, it is important that each recognized chapter’s values and founding principles be congruent with these goals. Recognized Greek organizations are permitted certain privileges and, correspondingly, must undertake certain responsibilities within this community.

E. At and in connection with LMU and LMU Students, the LMU Student Conduct Code and all other LMU policies supersede and preempt any and all inconsistent or contrary regulations, policies and/or decisions made by registered Greek organizations and/or their inter/national organizations and their affiliates.

II. Privileges

A. Instill the values of their organizations and the institution through integration of their values, missions and standards into the organization, membership and programming of the chapter.

C. Be knowledgeable of and adhere to their sponsoring inter/national organization policies, including, but not limited to, risk management and anti-hazing and remain in good standing with their sponsoring inter/national organization and the University.

D. Obtain and maintain a proper tax-identification number under the Internal Revenue Code as a not-for-profit, social fraternity or sorority. Organizations that have this IRS designation are legally entitled to single sex membership based on Section 86.14 of the regulations announced under Title IX of the U.S. Education Act Amendments of 1972.

E. Submit a certificate of insurance each year upon policy renewal documenting comprehensive insurance coverage, naming LMU as additional insured with limits approved by the University and including host liquor liability.

H. Maintain minimum active membership standards in accordance with Student Organization Policies and Procedures manual.

I. Require that all new members have completed 12 graded academic units and earned a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA in order to join the organization. Spring first-time, first-year students and transfer students are eligible to participate in spring recruitment.

J. Update membership rosters each academic term with all new and active members, as instructed by Student Leadership & Development.

K. Actively participate in the LMU Greek Council, the Greek governing organization at LMU and Gavel Club.

L. Actively participate in required programs sponsored by LMU Greek Council and Student Leadership & Development.

M. Foster an atmosphere within the chapter that is supportive of high academic standards and maintain a chapter GPA equal to or above the respective All Men’s or All Women’s GPA each term.

N. Require that all members of the organization are matriculated students of the University and remain in good standing with the University. For undergraduate students this is a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0. Individual organizations may impose a higher standard. Undergraduate students must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher and deemed by Department of Judicial Affairs to be in good behavioral standing in order to be eligible to serve in a leadership position in a Greek organization.

O. Contribute positively to the LMU Greek community through programming, interfraternal relationships, service and philanthropic endeavors and educational opportunities for members.

P. Have a LMU faculty or staff member serve as an on-campus advisor.

IV. Governance Structure

The LMU Greek Council shall officially represent and govern all registered fraternities and sororities. The LMU Greek Council shall be composed of one voting representative from each registered fraternity and sorority, as well as the executive officers.

V. Expansion Philosophy

A. As a private institution, LMU chooses to intentionally and carefully manage the growth and expansion of Greek organizations. LMU seeks organizations that promote ideals consistent with those of the University to educate and develop mature and responsible community members and that are willing to commit the human and financial resources necessary to assure achievement of those ideals. The University’s overall objective is to select organizations that will positively contribute to the overall undergraduate experience and enhance the campus community.

B. The process to recognize additional fraternities and sororities at LMU will always be initiated and conducted by Student Leadership & Development. Student Leadership & Development’s determination of readiness for expansion will be based on size and viability of the current Greek community, the availability of campus resources and personnel to support additional chapters, and the interest of unaffiliated students at LMU, in addition to interest from any national organizations.

VI. Expansion Process

In accordance with the Expansion Philosophy, when Student Leadership & Development determines that the campus can effectively support Greek organization expansion, the process outlined below will be followed:

A. Appropriate organizations with official letters of interest on file with Student Leadership & Development will be notified that LMU is open for expansion. Additional organizations will be informed if needed.

B. Interested organizations will be invited to submit proposals.

C. All organizations submitting proposals that meet the criteria for recognition will be reviewed by an expansion committee established by Student Leadership & Development.

D. One or more prospective organizations may be selected to participate in a presentation process on campus.

E. Following the presentation process, the LMU Greek Council, the expansion committee and the NPC, NIC, NPHC, NALFO or NAPA chapters when appropriate, may submit their recommendations and/or endorsements to the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs.
F. An invitation for recognition may be granted at the discretion of the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs.

G. Unrecognized Greek organizations are prohibited from operating at LMU without having successfully completed the University expansion process resulting in an invitation to be recognized at LMU.

H. A chapter will be designated as provisional when their membership total falls below five members who attend the University. There is a four-semester grace period during which the chapter may be on a provisional status. After the fourth semester, the organization may petition for an additional semester to increase membership to the minimum. Once the provisional status period has elapsed, if the chapter has not met the minimum membership size, the chapter will be considered dormant.

VII. Recognition Criteria

In addition to the potential organization’s willingness to adhere to the expectations listed in the Responsibility section, prior to beginning the presentation and approval process, each Greek organization must provide evidence of the following:

A. A proper tax-identification number under the Internal Revenue Code as a not-for-profit, social fraternity or sorority. Organizations that have this IRS designation are legally entitled to single-sex membership based on Section 86.14 of the regulations announced under Title IX of the U.S. Education Act Amendments of 1972.

B. Ability to carry a current comprehensive insurance policy naming LMU as additional insured with limits approved by the University and host liquor liability.

VIII. Policy Violations and Changes in University Recognition Status

A. Alleged violations of Greek Council Constitution, By-Laws or Standing Rules shall be addressed by the processes outlined in those governing documents.

B. Violations of University policies referred to the Department of Judicial Affairs will be adjudicated by a judicial officer(s) or the Greek Hearing Board using the process outlined in the Student Conduct Code. Sanctions for organizational misconduct found through the judicial process may include revocation or denial of registration, as well as other appropriate sanctions, pursuant to Section V of the Student Conduct Code.

C. Other violations of the Fraternity and Sorority Policy may be addressed by Student Leadership & Development. Interim responsive measures may be imposed including, but not limited to, suspension of activities, meetings and programs until compliance with applicable provisions is achieved and resulting effects are appropriately mitigated.

D. National organizations and chapter advisors may be notified of any alleged violations or findings of responsibility of Greek Council, University and Fraternity and Sorority policies, as well as any new or on-going Department of Public Safety investigations.
Freedom of Expression and Dissent/Speakers Policy

Introduction
This policy is in place to provide for Student expression and dissent in an equitable and safe manner. All persons, organizations or Groups are encouraged to consult this policy before engaging in any form of organized dissent.

Freedom of Expression
As an academic community, Loyola Marymount University is dedicated to the advancement of knowledge. Therefore, persons, Organizations or Groups have the freedom to present various points of view without physical restriction, disruption or intimidation by others. Such inappropriate behaviors are contrary to the University’s mission and will not be tolerated.

Dissent
Dissent, defined as disagreement or a difference of opinion, is integral to the purpose of higher education. A university must be an optimal learning environment and all members of the LMU community have a responsibility to maintain an atmosphere of free inquiry and expression that is orderly, safe and regulated within necessary restrictions of time, location and method.

Coercive Disruption
The difference between legitimate dissent and coercive disruption can be difficult to define. Coercive disruption is generally regarded as Group A imposing its opinion upon Group B without Group B’s consent, regardless of either group’s perceptions of the amount of power or influence its opposition possesses. Thus, a Group perceived as “powerless” is not necessarily innocent of coercive disruption if its forms of expression are disruptive, unethical, unlawful or otherwise extreme.

Furthermore, any gathering of people that performs a disruptive act in a violent or boisterous manner is acting contrary to University policy. More specifically, coercive disruption includes any activities that:

- Deny or infringe upon the rights of Students, faculty or staff of the University community.
- Disrupt or interfere with educational or other activities of the University community.
- React to the peaceful dissent of others by attempting to deny their rights.
- Obstruct or restrict free movement of persons on any part of the campus.
- Deny the use of offices or other facilities to Students, faculty, Public Safety officers, staff, administrators or Guests of the LMU community.
- Endanger the safety of any person on the campus.
- Result in the destruction of property.
Events sponsored by Student Organizations and University Programs

Lecturers and Other Public Speakers

The University is dedicated to providing an academic environment that encourages Students to seek truth, develop critical thinking and make responsible decisions that influence their lives and the greater community in which they live. To this end, Student Organizations are encouraged to invite lecturers from outside the University community.

It must be clearly understood that Student Organization or University program sponsorship of guest speakers does not imply University approval or endorsement of the views presented.

These guidelines do not apply to faculty members who, under the principles of academic freedom, have the right to invite lecturers to their classrooms.

Approval Process

Registered Student Organizations and University programs must seek approval for any lectures or programs through the Activity Planner and Event Proposal Process coordinated through Student Leadership & Development. Review of the event will include, but is not limited to, the content of the program, impact on human and/or financial resources, ability to maintain orderly operation of campus activities and the physical safety of the campus population. Final authorization for a speaker may be required from the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs.

The Guiding Principles for Student Programming will be used to determine the congruence of each requested event with the University mission and Catholic teachings. In some cases the event may not be approved or the format of the event may need to be modified to create a balanced educational opportunity for the campus community.

All applicable policies governing student events, safety, ticket sales, amplification and catering must be observed while planning and implementing the event.
Gambling Policy

Loyola Marymount University expects Students to abide by federal and state laws prohibiting illegal gambling. Such prohibited activity includes, but is not limited to:

A. Betting on, wagering on or selling pools on any athletic event;

B. Possessing on one’s person or premises (e.g. room, residence, car) any card, book or other device for registering bets;

C. Knowingly permitting use of one’s premises, one’s telephone or other electronic communications devices for illegal gambling;

D. Knowingly receiving or delivering a letter, package or parcel related to illegal gambling;

E. Offering or accepting a bribe to influence the outcome of an athletic event;

F. Involvement in bookmaking or wagering pools with respect to sporting events.

Students involved in illegal gambling, particularly bookmaking, risk suspension or dismissal from the University.
Good Samaritan and Self-Reporting Policy

The welfare of Students is of the highest importance to Loyola Marymount University. Students who are intoxicated at a level requiring medical attention, or the friends of such Students, should always seek appropriate assistance from Public Safety, Residential Life Staff, EMTs, Student Health Services or other local emergency services.

The purpose of this policy is to promote safety and to encourage Students and third parties to promptly notify the appropriate staff or local emergency services in the event of such need. By this policy, LMU seeks to encourage and minimize any hesitation a Student may have to obtain help for himself, herself, a fellow Student, friend or any individual in need.

In situations where a Student self-reports a high level of intoxication and requests medical assistance, Loyola Marymount University will support this self-reporting behavior by mitigating the resulting disciplinary actions. The Student will be referred to an educational or developmental program in an effort to learn and grow from the situation and educational Student Conduct Code sanctions may be reduced or not imposed.

Assisting Students who report sexual or interpersonal misconduct is of paramount importance to the University. In order to facilitate reporting, the University may choose not to charge Students who report sexual or interpersonal misconduct or any material witnesses thereto with Student Conduct Code violations for certain behavior that otherwise would be considered violations (e.g. underage consumption of alcohol and/or use of marijuana or other illegal drugs).

While the University reserves the right to refuse a grant of amnesty to reporters under certain extenuating circumstances, Student(s) requesting assistance on behalf of an intoxicated Student or Student(s) in reporting sexual or interpersonal misconduct will generally be granted amnesty for being a Good Samaritan. This policy only applies to alcohol and other drug violations and does not excuse behaviors which go beyond alcohol and other drug intoxication (these may include, but are not limited to, disorderly conduct, failure to cooperate, physical assault, Sexual Assault, sexual violence, vandalism, property damage, etc.). Criminal investigations and other police action may still occur at the discretion of the law enforcement agency responding to the incident.
Guest Policy

Under this policy, the term “Guest” has the meaning ascribed to it under the Student Conduct Code. Students are responsible for the conduct of their Guests (including, without limitation, in their residence) and may be held accountable under applicable policies and the Student Conduct Code for the conduct of their Guests whether or not the Student is present when the actionable conduct occurs. The University reserves the right to summarily exclude and deny campus access and presence to any non-LMU student from or attendance at any University event or sponsored activity.
Missing Resident Student Procedures

While many missing resident Student reports at universities are the result of a Student changing his or her normal routine and neglecting to inform roommates, friends, and/or family of his or her whereabouts, Loyola Marymount University takes reports of missing resident Students seriously. The University handles missing resident Student reports pursuant to the following procedures.

The University defines a missing resident Student as any currently enrolled resident Student who has not been in contact with roommates, friends, family, faculty or staff for a reasonable period of time (usually a period of 24 hours) and whose whereabouts have been questioned and brought to the attention of a University official.

Any member of the University community who has reason to believe a Student residing in on-campus housing has been missing for 24 hours should immediately contact the Department of Public Safety at (310) 338-2893.

In addition to registering a general emergency contact, Students residing in on-campus housing have the option to confidentially identify one or more individuals to be contacted by the University in the event the Student has been determined to be missing for 24-hours, or is otherwise determined to be missing (“Confidential Contact”). A Student who wishes to designate a Confidential Contact may do so at the same time he/she provides general emergency contact information or by contacting Student Housing. The Confidential Contact will remain until revoked or changed by the Student. The Confidential Contact information will be kept confidential and will be accessible only to authorized University officials and law enforcement in furtherance of a missing person investigation.

When the Department of Public Safety receives a missing resident Student report, it will promptly initiate an investigation and notify the Student Affairs Dean’s Office of the investigation. If a Student has designated a Confidential Contact(s), the Student Affairs Dean’s Office will notify the Confidential Contact(s) within 24 hours of the determination that the Student is missing. In the event that the missing resident Student is a minor (under the age of 18 years) and is not emancipated, the parent or legal guardian, if different than the designated Confidential Contact, will also be notified within 24 hours of the determination that the Student is missing. The Department of Public Safety will notify the appropriate law enforcement agencies within 24 hours of the determination that the Student is missing.

In the event that the University is notified of a missing Student who resides off campus, the Department of Public Safety will refer the reporting party to the appropriate local law enforcement agency, or if necessary, refer the case directly to the appropriate local law enforcement agency.
Off-Campus Living Orientation and Address Policy

I. Introduction

In an effort to provide greater support and guidance, Off-Campus Student Life offers online orientation to off-campus living. The online orientation highlights Student rights and responsibilities and reiterates some of the University’s expectations of Students living off campus.

Since many LMU Students live off campus in the neighborhoods surrounding or near the campus, the University is interested in and has a need for collecting accurate current local address information for these Students. This information will, among other things, help with University planning, maintaining campus and University community safety and security, emergency communication and aid the University in effectively communicating with Students.

II. Definitions

For purposes of this policy, “address” is defined as the address at which the Student resides during the week while attending classes at the University. A post office box cannot be used for a local address.

III. Policy

The University requires all non-resident Students to participate in an online orientation and to report, and update as necessary, current address information.

Failure to report, and update as necessary, accurate address information will constitute a violation of this policy and may result in a registration hold and/or disciplinary action.

IV. Implementation

A. Off-Campus Living Orientation and Address Verification

Once each academic year, all non-resident Students will be prompted to complete the online Off-Campus Living Orientation and Address Verification process.

B. Verifying Accuracy of Address Information

In order to complete the online orientation, the Student must provide the University with documentation that verifies his/her current address. This documentation must have the Student’s name and address on it. These documents can include but are not limited to:

- Utility bills
- Leases
- Magazine subscriptions
Note: Off-Campus Student Life does not recognize driver’s licenses as official documentation.

Off-Campus Student Life will routinely audit the accuracy of the local addresses for all Students living off campus.

More details about the Off-Campus Living Orientation and Address Verification process can be found on the Off-Campus Student Life webpage (http://www.lmu.edu/OCSL).

Violence-Free Campus Policy

Introduction
Loyola Marymount University is committed to maintaining a safe and secure campus environment so that Students, faculty, staff and visitors are able to pursue their education, work and other activities in a safe, non-threatening environment.

Policy Statement
Violence, threats or implied threats of violence and intimidation (including verbal, written, electronic or physical acts intended to frighten or coerce) impede the goal of providing a safe environment. All Students, faculty, staff and visitors are covered by this policy as well as any other policies contained in the LMU Community Standards booklet. This policy applies to conduct on campus but includes off-campus conduct which adversely affects the University.

The University has adopted procedures for responding to and addressing conduct that violates this policy and urges LMU community members to be alert to the possibility of violence on campus. As responsible members of the University community, Students, faculty, staff and visitors are encouraged to report violence, threats of violence or intimidation that they experience or witness on campus.

Reporting
LMU community members should report campus emergencies and issues of concern to the Department of Public Safety (DPS) at (310) 338-2893 or x222 (for internal University phones). In addition, the Department of Public Safety maintains an anonymous website for reporting suspicious incidents at http://publicsafety.lmu.edu/incidentreporting and e-mail address: public.safety@lmu.edu.

Threat Assessment
Once information is received by the University concerning violence, threats of violence or intimidation to any member of the campus community, the University will conduct a threat assessment to determine if an immediate or imminent threat to the campus or any member of the campus community exists. All threat assessments are conducted by the Department of Public Safety pursuant to its threat assessment protocols. DPS may collaborate with other University entities to help determine the credibility and extent of the threat and whether any further notifications or referrals should be made. When appropriate, DPS may collaborate with local law enforcement entities upon the finding of possible criminal violations. DPS may also determine that no immediate threat exists and may refer student incidents to the Department of Judicial Affairs.

Non-Retaliation and False Claims
The University prohibits retaliation against any person who in good faith reports violations of this policy or cooperates in an investigation. The University also prohibits the filing of knowingly false or misleading reports and providing knowingly false or misleading information in an investigation. Disciplinary or other action may result from either of these acts in violation of this policy.

Enforcement

The University may pursue disciplinary, civil or criminal action as appropriate against any person who violates this policy by engaging in such violence, threats of violence or intimidation.

Confidentiality

Confidentiality of complaints and parties will be preserved to the greatest extent possible, understanding that the University may have an obligation to take some action even if the Complainant is reluctant to proceed.
I. Introduction

Loyola Marymount University recognizes the significant, unacceptable and nationwide existence of sexual and interpersonal misconduct on college campuses. LMU is dedicated to the prevention of such misconduct and to providing a caring, supportive and effective response when such misconduct occurs. Accordingly, LMU encourages Students and University community members to report such misconduct so that the University can take appropriate responsive action.

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (“Title IX”) is a federal civil rights law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs and activities. Under Title IX, discrimination on the basis of sex can include student-on-student Sexual Harassment or Sexual Assault including sexual violence, rape, sexual battery, sexual coercion, Sexual Exploitation and unwelcome intrusion into another’s sexual seclusion or privacy, as well as interpersonal misconduct including Dating Violence, Domestic Violence and Stalking. The Division of Student Affairs has established this Student-on-Student Sexual & Interpersonal Misconduct Policy & Protocol to assist and respond to complaints of student-on-student sexual misconduct and interpersonal misconduct.

Students should report all forms of sexual misconduct (student-on-student; student and non-student; faculty/staff-on-student) and interpersonal misconduct to a Student Affairs professional staff, the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs, the Title IX Coordinator/EEO Specialist or by filing a report with the LMU Department of Public Safety, (310) 338-2893/222 emergency line on campus).

In addition, a Judicial Affairs/Student Conduct Code case for alleged student-on-student sexual or interpersonal misconduct will be initiated and adjudicated.

Sexual or interpersonal misconduct involving a Student and any non-student in the University community is handled under the LMU Discriminatory Harassment and Complaint Process. Further information about the LMU Discriminatory Harassment and Complaint Process including the making and processing of complaints thereunder may be found at http://www.lmu.edu/Assets/Student+Affairs+Division/Judicial+Affairs/Discriminatory+Harassment+and+Complaint+Process.pdf.

All persons, including University faculty and staff, are prohibited from taking any retaliatory action against any other member of the University community including, but not limited to, the Complainant, Respondent or witnesses to an alleged incident of sexual misconduct or interpersonal misconduct. Any Student engaging in any retaliatory action(s) will be subject to discipline under the Student Conduct Code and appropriate sanctions for determined violations may include dismissal from the University.
Retaliation by non-students will be adjudicated and determined in accordance with the LMU Discriminatory Harassment and Complaint Process. Any Student who believes that they have been retaliated against for having filed, or being named in, a complaint for sexual misconduct or interpersonal misconduct or having participated in the investigation of such a complaint, should promptly notify the Department of Public Safety at (310) 338-2893 (x82893 from campus phone). Any person who believes that they have been retaliated against by a staff member should notify Human Resources at (310) 338-5118. Any person who believes that they have been retaliated against for the above mentioned reasons by a faculty member on behalf of the University should notify Academic Affairs at (310) 338-2733.

For additional information on sexual and interpersonal misconduct awareness, prevention and training, including bystander intervention, programming and events on campus intended to bring awareness to these issues and opportunities for you to get involved, please visit LMU CARES online: http://studentaffairs.lmu.edu/lmucares/, or contact Briana Maturi, Special Assistant to the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs, (310) 338-2885.

II. Policy
A. Under Title IX, Sexual Harassment is broadly defined as unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature. It includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal, nonverbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature including sexual violence. This policy applies to all Students, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity. Under this policy, sexual misconduct includes all forms of Sexual Harassment under Title IX including sexual violence, such as rape, Sexual Assault, sexual battery and sexual coercion. Interpersonal misconduct includes Dating Violence, Domestic Violence and Stalking. All forms of sexual and interpersonal misconduct are unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Any Student alleged to have participated in sexual or interpersonal misconduct will be referred to Judicial Affairs and, if found responsible, will be subject to disciplinary action. Complainants of sexual and interpersonal misconduct are not required to be members of the LMU community; they may be third parties, or others unaffiliated with the University. Outcomes related to sexual and interpersonal misconduct cases run the full spectrum as outlined in Section V of the Student Conduct Code, and include disciplinary warning through suspension or dismissal from the University.

B. All alleged incidents of student-on-student sexual and interpersonal misconduct will be adjudicated in accordance with the Student Conduct Code utilizing the preponderance of the evidence standard. Student Conduct Code proceedings shall be prompt, fair and impartial and adjudicated by officials that have received regular training regarding incidents of this nature.

C. In cases alleging sexual and interpersonal misconduct the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or a designee may take interim measures, including, but not limited to, academic, residential, transportation and/or employment accommodations, intended to ensure the well-being of the Complainant, the Respondent, the investigatory process and/or the University community while the complaint is being investigated and prior to the determination on the charge. Any such interim measures shall not be referred to or offered as evidence at the hearing on the underlying charge. Any such interim measures shall be designed and implemented in a manner intended to achieve their purpose while at the same time limiting, to the extent practicable, any adverse effect to the Complainant’s and/or Respondent’s educational program. Any such interim measures shall remain confidential, to the extent practicable to achieve the measure. Both Complainant and Respondent will receive written notification of their access to interim measures.

D. Both Complainant and Respondent will receive written notification of their rights and options in regards to the Student Conduct process. Both Complainant and Respondent will also receive written notification of available on and off campus counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid and other services offered by the University and other local organizations.

E. No Contact Orders (NCO) will also be utilized by the Department of Public Safety both during the investigation and through the completion of the disciplinary process. Both parties will be expected to sign a document stating their awareness of the NCO and the stipulations of no contact.

F. In line with the Good Samaritan Policy found in this Community Standards Booklet, violations of the Student Conduct Code regarding underage or excessive consumption of alcohol or use or possession of illegal substances will not be utilized to commence disciplinary proceedings against a Complainant if the information is divulged through the process of reporting sexual or interpersonal misconduct. The University does reserve the right to refuse to grant amnesty to reporters under certain extenuating circumstances. Criminal investigations and other police action may still occur at the discretion of the law enforcement agency responding to the incident.

G. Student Conduct Code proceedings respecting alleged incidents of sexual and interpersonal misconduct will in the first instance be adjudicated by a panel of not less than two staff Judicial Officers. These Judicial Officers will be regularly trained in the adjudication of these types of incidents and will schedule individual meetings with both parties and witnesses regarding the alleged violation(s). Students will not be permitted to cross-examine each other or witnesses through the Student Conduct Code process.

All Judicial Officers receive training regarding the adjudication of sexual and interpersonal misconduct. For information regarding what training is conducted please visit LMU CARES online: http://studentaffairs.lmu.edu/lmucares/, or contact Briana Maturi, Special Assistant to the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs, (310) 338-2885.

H. Prior sexual history of Complainant or Respondent with people outside of each other will not be utilized as evidence in these disciplinary proceedings.
I. Once a Student Conduct Code determination of the charges has been made, a determination notification letter will be concurrently sent to Complainant and Respondent.

III. Definitions

A. For purposes of this policy, Sexual Assault is defined as engaging in sexual intercourse, or any of the sexual activities listed below, with another person without that person’s consent. Sexual Assault includes, but is not limited to, rape, sexual battery, anal intercourse, oral copulation or penetration of a body cavity by a foreign object. Sexual intercourse includes the penetration, however slight, of the vagina or anus with any object or body part and of the mouth with a body part and/or object in a sexual manner.

B. For purposes of this policy, Sexual Harassment is defined as unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature including, without limitation, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, intrusion into another’s sexual seclusion or privacy and other unwelcome verbal, nonverbal, auditory, visual, recording, transmission or display of sexual matters or materials or physical conduct of a sexual nature. A sexually hostile environment exists when Sexual Harassment is so continuous and pervasive that it interferes with or limits a student’s ability to participate in, or benefit from, the University’s educational program.

Sexual Harassment also includes the act of making sexual contact with the intimate body part of another person without that person’s consent, including as the result of sexual coercion. Intimate body parts include the mouth, the sex organs, the anus, the groin or buttocks of any person and/or the breasts.

For purposes of this policy, Sexual Harassment includes, but is not limited to, invasion of sexual privacy, audio or video recording or photographing of any type (webcam, camera, Internet exposure, etc.) without knowledge and consent of all persons, going beyond the boundaries of consent (such as letting another person hide and watch you have consensual sex without the knowledge of the other party), engaging in unconsented voyeurism, exposing one’s genitals or breasts in non-consensual circumstances; coercing another against their will to expose their genitals or breasts and prostituting another person.

C. For purposes of this policy, Sexual Exploitation is defined as sexual misconduct that occurs when a person takes unjust or abusive sexual advantage of another for his or her benefit or for the benefit of anyone other than the exploited party; and that behavior does not otherwise constitute Sexual Assault. Examples of Sexual Exploitation include, but are not limited to, invasion of sexual privacy, videotaping or photographing of any type (webcam, camera, Internet exposure, etc.) without knowledge and consent of all persons; going beyond the boundaries of consent (such as letting another person hide and watch you have consensual sex without the knowledge of the other party), engaging in voyeurism, exposing one’s genitals in non-consensual circumstances; coercing another to expose their genitals and prostituting another person.

D. Consent is defined as the unambiguous and willing participation or cooperation in act, behavior or attitude that is commonly understood to be consistent with the exercise of free will. It is the responsibility of each person involved in the sexual activity to ensure that he or she has the affirmative consent of the other(s) to engage in the sexual activity. Consent requires participants who are lawful adults, fully conscious, equally free and legally competent to act, have clearly communicated their willingness, cooperation or permission to participate in the specific sexual activity engaged in, are positive and clear about their desires and are able to cease ongoing consensual activity at any time. Refusal to consent does not have to be verbal; it can be expressed with clear gestures, body language or attitude. Lack of protest or resistance does not mean consent, nor does silence mean consent. Prior sexual history between the Complainant and Respondent, by itself, does not constitute Consent, nor does consenting to sexual activity with one person imply consent to sexual activity with another person.

1. Consent is not freely given if:
   a. It is obtained through the use of force, through the fear of or the threat of force, through the abuse of a power position over another (such as employment status or position within an organization) or by kidnap; or
   b. A reasonable person, in the position of the alleged perpetrator at the time the alleged conduct occurred, should have known that the other person was unable to give consent for any of the following reasons:
      1. The individual is unable to make an informed decision as a result of the use of alcohol, drugs or other substances (including, but not limited to, predatory drugs or prescribed medications); or
      2. The individual is unable to consciously respond for whatever reason including lack of consciousness, sleep, illness or shock; or
      3. The individual is under the age of 18 and therefore legally incapable of giving consent; or
      4. The individual is known by reason of impairment, mental condition or developmental or physical disability to be reasonably unable to consent.
   c. The individual has acted or spoken in a manner which expresses a lack of consent or a refusal to consent.

2. The following are invalid excuses for failing to obtain affirmative consent from the Complainant:
   a. The Respondent’s belief in affirmative consent arose from the intoxication or recklessness of the Respondent; or
   b. The Respondent did not take reasonable steps, in the circumstances known to the Respondent at the time, to ascertain whether the Complainant affirmatively consented.

E. In accordance with the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act, Domestic Violence is defined as a felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under California law or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under California law.

F. For purposes of this policy and in accordance with the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act, Dating Violence is defined as violence committed by a person:

1. Who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and
2. Where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the Complainant’s statement and with consideration of the following factors:
   a. The length of the relationship.
   b. The type of the relationship.
   c. The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Dating Violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or threat of such abuse. Dating Violence does not include acts covered under the definition of Domestic Violence.

G. For purposes of this policy and in accordance with the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act Stalking means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person(s) that would cause a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the Complainant to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or suffer substantial emotional distress.

For the purposes of this definition course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly or through third parties, by any action, method, device or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens or communicates to or about a person or interferes with a person’s property.

For the purposes of this definition substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

H. “Complainant” means the individual(s) who file(s) a Student Conduct Code complaint with the University. In some instances the University may serve as a Complainant.

I. “Hostile Environment” is defined as any situation in which there is harassing conduct that is sufficiently severe, pervasive and objectively offensive that it limits, interferes with or denies educational benefits or opportunities, from both a subjective (the Complainant’s) and an objective (reasonable person’s) viewpoint.

J. “Respondent” means the individual(s) against whom a Student Conduct Code complaint is made.

K. “Retaliation” means any adverse, non-permitted action taken against a person who reports a violation of this policy, assists someone with a report of a violation of this policy, or participates in any manner in an investigation or resolution of a report of a violation of this policy. Retaliation can include, but is not limited to, threats, intimidation, coercion, harassment, reprisals, spreading negative information about an individual, exclusions from academic and non-academic programs and/or adverse actions related to employment.

IV. California Law

The following excerpts are only partially explanatory of certain California laws pertaining to sexual and interpersonal misconduct. These excerpts are not intended to be an exhaustive description or list of California laws pertaining to sexual misconduct, inappropriate or criminal sexual behavior or interpersonal misconduct.

A. Excerpts from Sections 11165.1, 261 and 289 of the California Penal Code: Sexual Assault includes rape, statutory rape, rape in concert, incest, sodomy, oral copulation, lewd or lascivious acts upon a child and the following:

1. Penetration, however slight, of the vagina or anal opening by any foreign object, substance, instrument or device, or by any unknown object.
2. Sexual contact between the genitals or anal opening of one person and the mouth or tongue of another person.
3. Intrusion by one person into the genitals or anal opening of another person, including the use of an object for this purpose, except that, it does not include acts performed for a valid medical purpose.
4. The intentional touching of the genitals or intimate parts, including the breasts, genital area, groin, inner thighs and buttocks or the clothing covering them, of a child, or of the perpetrator by a child, for purposes of sexual arousal or gratification, except that, it does not include acts which may reasonably be construed to be normal caretaker responsibilities; interactions with, or demonstrations of affection for, the child; or acts performed for a valid medical purpose.
5. The intentional masturbation of the perpetrator’s genitals in the presence of a child.

Rape is an act of sexual intercourse accomplished with a person not the spouse of the perpetrator under any of the following circumstances:

1. Where a person is incapable, because of a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability, of giving legal consent and this is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the act.
2. Where it is accomplished against a person’s will by means of force, violence, duress, menace or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the person or another.
3. Where a person is prevented from resisting by any intoxicating or anesthetic substance, or any controlled substance, and this condition was known, or reasonably should have been known, by the accused.
4. Where a person is at the time unconscious of the nature of the act, and this is known to the accused.

As used in this paragraph, “unconscious of the nature of the act” means incapable of resisting because the victim meets one of the following conditions:

(A) Was unconscious or asleep.
(B) Was not aware, knowing, perceiving or cognizant that the act occurred.
(C) Was not aware, knowing, perceiving or cognizant of the essential characteristics of the act due to the perpetrator’s fraud in fact.
(D) Was not aware, knowing, perceiving or cognizant of the essential characteristics of the act due to the perpetrator’s fraudulent representation that the sexual penetration served a professional purpose when it served no professional purpose.

5. Where a person submits under the belief that the person committing the act is someone known to the victim other than the accused, and this belief is induced by any artifice, pretense or concealment practiced by the accused, with the intent to induce the belief.

6. Where the act is accomplished against the victim’s will by threatening to retaliate in the future against the victim or any other person, and there is a reasonable possibility that the perpetrator will execute the threat. As used in this paragraph, “threatening to retaliate” means a threat to kidnap or falsely imprison, or to inflict extreme pain, serious bodily injury or death.

California law also states that “The essential guilt of rape consists in the outrage to the person and feelings of the victim of the rape. Any sexual penetration, however slight, is sufficient to complete the crime” (Penal Code section 263). California law further defines both marital rape (Penal Code section 262) and “statutory rape” (Penal Code section 261.5).

Though laws vary from state to state, intercourse in which consent was not obtained or was obtained under coercive conditions will usually be considered rape.

B. Excerpt from Section 67386 of the California Education Code:

University policies concerning Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence and Stalking shall include an affirmative consent standard in the determination of whether consent was given by both parties to sexual activity. “Affirmative consent” means affirmative, conscious and voluntary agreement to engage in sexual activity. It is the responsibility of each person involved in the sexual activity to ensure that he or she has the affirmative consent of the other or others to engage in the sexual activity.

C. Excerpts from Section 261.6 and 261.7 of the California Penal Code:

In prosecutions under Section 261, 262, 286, 288a or 289, in which Consent is at issue, “Consent” shall be defined to mean positive cooperation in act or attitude pursuant to an exercise of free will. The person must act freely and voluntarily and have knowledge of the nature of the act or transaction involved.
A current or previous dating or marital relationship shall not be sufficient to constitute Consent where Consent is at issue in a prosecution under Section 261, 262, 286, 288a or 289. Nothing in this section shall affect the admissibility of evidence or the burden of proof on the issue of Consent. In prosecutions under Section 261, 262, 286, 288a or 289, in which Consent is at issue, evidence that the victim suggested, requested or otherwise communicated to the defendant that the defendant use a condom or other birth control device, without additional evidence of Consent, is not sufficient to constitute Consent.

D. Excerpts from Section 646.9 of the California Penal Code:

Any person who willfully, maliciously and repeatedly follows or willfully and maliciously harasses another person and who makes a credible threat with the intent to place that person in reasonable fear for his or her safety, or the safety of his or her immediate family is guilty of the crime of Stalking, punishable by:

1. Imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or
2. A fine of not more than $1,000, or
3. by both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison.

For the purposes of this section, “harasses” means engages in a knowing and willful course of conduct directed at a specific person that seriously alarms, annoys, torments or terrorizes the person, and that serves no legitimate purpose.

E. Excerpts from Section 13700 of the California Penal Code and 6211 of the California
Family Code:

“Domestic Violence” means abuse committed against an adult or a minor who is a spouse, former spouse, cohabitant, former cohabitant, person with whom the suspect has had a child or is having, has had a dating or engagement relationship, a child of a party or a child who is the subject of an action under the Uniform Parentage Act or any other person related by consanguinity or affinity within the second degree.

For the purposes of this subdivision, “cohabitant” means two unrelated adult persons living together for a substantial period of time, resulting in some permanency of relationship. Factors that may determine whether persons are cohabiting include, but are not limited to:

1. Sexual relations between the parties while sharing the same living quarters,
2. Sharing of income or expenses,
3. Joint use or ownership of property,
4. Whether the parties hold themselves out as husband and wife,
5. The continuity of the relationship,
6. The length of the relationship.
V. Complainant/Respondent

A. Complainants and Respondents in a sexual or interpersonal misconduct case have the right to:

1. An appointed Advisor who will assist them through the student judicial process.
2. Receive a written notification of available on- and off-campus counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid and other services available as well as notification of the procedures for institutional disciplinary action and their rights and options as defined in sexual and interpersonal misconduct cases.
3. Make a complaint to the Department of Public Safety.
4. File a police report and take legal action separate from and/or in addition to filing a Student Conduct Code complaint seeking disciplinary action.
5. Be informed of the disciplinary finding (responsible or not responsible) in writing.
6. Present material witnesses to the alleged incident.
7. Refuse any/all of the above.

VI. Title IX

A. Under Title IX, LMU has a responsibility to respond promptly and equitably to address Sexual Harassment, sexual violence and interpersonal misconduct. If LMU knows or reasonably should know about Sexual Harassment, sexual violence or interpersonal misconduct that creates a hostile environment, LMU must take action to eliminate the Sexual Harassment, sexual violence or relationship misconduct, prevent its recurrence and address its effects.

LMU encourages prompt reporting of crime to Public Safety and/or law enforcement. Even if a Student elects not to file a Student Conduct Code complaint, does not request that LMU take any action on the Student’s behalf or is unable to make a report to LMU and/or law enforcement, if LMU knows or reasonably should know about possible Sexual Harassment, sexual violence or interpersonal misconduct, LMU must promptly investigate to determine what occurred and then take appropriate steps to resolve the situation. In appropriate circumstances, LMU may report crimes to law enforcement when a victim decides not to report or cannot report the crime.

A criminal investigation into allegations of Sexual Harassment or sexual violence does not relieve LMU of its duty under Title IX to resolve complaints promptly and equitably.

LMU has a Title IX Coordinator, Sara Trivedi, EEO Specialist in the Human Resources Department, who can be reached at (310) 568-6105 or strivedi@lmu.edu.

B. How do I file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights?

VII. Confidentiality

A. Title IX requires all universities to identify “responsible employees” as those who are obligated to report all details of an incident, including the identities of those involved, to the Department of Public Safety whenever that information is brought forward to the employee. The Department of Public Safety will notify the Title IX Coordinator when a report has been filed. Responsible employees include faculty, administrative staff and some student staff. Responsible employees do not include the following:

1. Professional, licensed counselors, such as the psychologists at Student Psychological Services, (310) 338-2868, are not required to report any information regarding an alleged sexual or interpersonal misconduct, to the Department of Public Safety, the Title IX Coordinator or any other reporting body, without consent from the student. Pastoral counselors, such as Catholic priests and women religious, are not required to report any information regarding an alleged sexual or interpersonal misconduct, to the Department of Public Safety, the Title IX Coordinator or any other reporting body, without consent from the student provided they receive the information in performance of their pastoral duties.

2. Student Health Center Staff, such as doctors and nurse practitioners at Student Health Services (310) 338-2881, are not required to report any information regarding an alleged sexual or interpersonal misconduct, to the Department of Public Safety, the Title IX Coordinator or any other reporting body on campus, without consent from the student. The Health Center Staff will be required to report signs of physical or sexual abuse to law enforcement.

3. LMU Community Resource Advisors (LMU CRAs), whose names can be found on the LMU CARES website, may speak confidentially with students regarding incidents of sexual and interpersonal misconduct without automatically triggering a University investigation into the matter. These individuals do have time and place reporting responsibilities under the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act), but are not obligated to report identifying information of the Complainant. If the Respondent’s name is presented to a LMU CRA, they will be obligated to report that information to the Title IX Coordinator. Reports by the LMU CRA will not trigger a University investigation unless the Title IX Coordinator in consultation with the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or designee determines that an investigation is necessary because:

a. The Respondent has known prior allegations of sexual or interpersonal misconduct and a potential for a campus safety risk exists; or
b. The location in which the alleged incident occurred is a location where previous complaints of sexual or interpersonal misconduct occurred creating the potential for an unsafe environment for the LMU community; or
c. A threat to the campus community at large has been identified; or
d. A frequency or pattern is detected that suggests an unsafe environment exists for the LMU community or an LMU community member; or
e. The sexual or interpersonal misconduct was perpetrated with a weapon; or
f. The victim is a minor; or
g. Some combination of the above factors exists.

B. Students reporting an incident of sexual or interpersonal misconduct to a responsible employee may request confidentiality. Students should be aware that if they request confidentiality, then the University’s ability to effectively investigate and adjudicate the instance(s) of sexual or interpersonal misconduct may be impaired. The University cannot guarantee confidentiality in this instance, and certain factors will be considered in determining whether the confidentiality request can be honored. Those factors include those listed above in Section VII(A)(3).

C. The Title IX Coordinator, in consultation with the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs or designee, is responsible for determining whether the confidentiality of the Complainant can be honored. If the decision is made that confidentiality cannot be honored, then the University will only inform the necessary individuals and entities on campus required to perform a thorough investigation and adjudication of the complaint. The University will respond to any accusations of retaliation against the Complainant or witnesses brought upon by the investigation or adjudication of the misconduct.

VIII. Student Affairs Resource Administrators

When an allegation of sexual or interpersonal misconduct is brought to the attention of LMU, the Associate Dean of Students or designee will assign a Student Affairs Resource Administrator (SARA) to both the Complainant and Respondent (if a Respondent has been identified). The SARAs will make themselves available, separately, to assist both the Complainant and Respondent in identifying University and external resources that are available to them in the context of alleged sexual or interpersonal misconduct. SARAs will also review with Complainants what interim measures may be available to them (as outlined in Section II(C) of this policy). Complainants will be assigned a SARA regardless of whether they provide LMU with the name of the Respondent or willingly participate in the conduct process. The SARAs are members of the Division of Student Affairs who are trained to assist the parties in identifying University and external resources and explaining the University’s judicial process in cases of alleged Student Conduct Code violations relating to sexual and interpersonal misconduct. The role of the SARA is to:

A. Provide information, in writing, regarding resources on and off campus such as Student Psychological Services (SPS), Student Health Services (SHS), Student Housing, Department of Public Safety (DPS), Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD)/proper law enforcement authorities, Rape Treatment Center at Santa Monica-UCLA Medical Center, Campus Ministry and Judicial Affairs.

B. Explain all stages of the LMU Student Conduct Code Judicial Affairs process, including potential outcomes for both Complainant and Respondent.

C. Provide information, explanation and review so that the parties can make an informed decision about the options available to them, including reporting to law enforcement, filing and responding to Student Conduct Code complaints, documenting their decisions and requesting interim measures.

D. Follow up with the Student throughout the Student Conduct Code process and thereafter to ensure that no retaliation is taking place and to continue to provide the Student access to the resources that the Student requires.

IX. Advisor

Prior to the commencement of Student Conduct Code proceedings, both the Complainant and the Respondent will be assigned Advisors by the Associate Dean of Students or designee to assist the Students as they progress through the University conduct process. Students are not required to utilize their appointed Advisors, and may select a different Advisor. In the unique instance of an incident involving sexual and/or interpersonal misconduct, Complainants and Respondents may choose an Advisor of their choice.

If the Student chooses an Advisor for incidents involving sexual and/or interpersonal misconduct, that Advisor is still subject to the requirements set forth in Section VII(C) (6) of the Student Conduct Code.

What Should You Do if You Experience
Sexual Assault, Sexual Violence, Domestic Violence,
Dating Violence or Stalking?

A. Go to a safe place as soon as you can

B. Preserve all physical evidence
Do not wash your face or hands, bathe, brush your teeth, drink or eat, douche or change clothes. If you do change your clothes, put all clothing you were wearing at the time of the assault in individual paper bags (not plastic). It is important to preserve as much evidence as possible for investigation and processing of criminal and/or disciplinary charges.

C. Contact LMU Department of Public Safety—
(310) 338-2893/222 (Emergency Line on campus)
LMU Public Safety can also be reached by activating the blue light boxes located throughout campus. Public Safety can assist you in reporting a crime that occurred off campus to the appropriate authorities. You may decline to report your experience to such authorities.

D. Seek immediate or prompt medical treatment (typically within 72 hours)
It is important to seek immediate or prompt and necessary follow-up medical attention for several reasons:

1. To assess and treat any physical injuries you may have sustained.
2. To determine the risk of sexually transmitted diseases or pregnancy and take appropriate medical measures.
3. If you choose, you may have evidence collected and preserved to aid in the investigation and processing of criminal prosecution and/or disciplinary action.

It is best for any physical evidence to be collected within the first 24 hours following the incident (the quality and quantity of evidence collected later than this may be substantially diminished).

E. Visit the Rape Treatment Center at Santa Monica-UCLA Medical Center—
(310) 319-4000
The Rape Treatment Center can provide general medical treatment and, if you choose, collection of evidence. A medical exam could include treatment of any physical problems; evaluation of risks; various lab tests for sexually transmitted diseases and pregnancy; appropriate treatment; identification and collection of physical evidence of any Sexual Assault. A specially trained nurse will perform the evidence collection exam. A Sexual Assault advocate or a support person of your choice may be present throughout the procedure.
The Rape Treatment Center hospital emergency department follows national standards for victim care, Sexual Assault exams and evidence collection procedures. If the decision is made to conduct an evidence collection exam, the anonymous evidence may be held for six months or longer. This means you do not have to decide immediately whether or not you want to press charges.

The Rape Treatment Center also provides long term counseling support for victims of Sexual Assault and sexual violence, as well as advocacy and accompanying services.

F. Meet with your assigned Student Affairs Resource Administrator (SARA)
LMU will assign you a SARA following a report being submitted to Public Safety. Your SARA is a Student Affairs professional trained to provide you with information about resources available to you both on and off campus. The SARA can receive requests for interim measures and review your options with you. SARAs will also review with you the University’s conduct process and LMU’s policy against retaliation.

G. Schedule non-emergency medical treatment—(310) 338-2881
Even if you choose not to go to the hospital or to seek immediate medical attention, it is still important to get medical attention to treat any physical problems and to conduct various lab tests for sexually transmitted diseases and pregnancy. To arrange non-emergency treatment, contact the Student Health Center via telephone or as a walk-in visit to their office in the Burns Recreation Center, between 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. If you say that you have been a victim of Sexual Assault, sexual violence, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence or Stalking, you will be offered a general medical examination by a licensed health care provider. You will also be offered a referral to Student Psychological Services (SPS) for counseling and support.

H. Utilize counseling services—(310) 338-2868
SPS has mental health professionals available for students in crisis. During regular office hours you can call SPS or come to the office located in the Burns Recreational Center. Office hours are Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and on Wednesday from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. A therapist will see you without an appointment if you have an emergency. After hours, please call Public Safety at (310) 338-2893.

The University does not discriminate on these bases, or any other basis protected by law, in the administration of any of its education or admissions policies, scholarship or loan programs, athletics, and other school-administered policies and programs, or in its employment policies and practices. All University policies, practices, and procedures are administered in a manner consistent with LMU’s Jesuit identity and character.

Non-Discrimination on the Basis of Disability

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services regulations implementing the act states that, “no otherwise qualified disabled individual . . . shall, solely by reason of his [or her] disability, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance,” such as Financial Aid. Section 504 administration and compliance are coordinated through Academic Affairs, Disability Support Services for students, and through Human Resources for faculty and staff.
The University provides reasonable accommodation of qualified individuals with mental and/or physical disabilities whose needs are made known. A student seeking an accommodation should contact his or her academic advisor or Disability Support Services. Faculty and staff seeking an accommodation should contact his or her supervisor or Human Resources.

The University will not tolerate hate crimes or bias-motivated incidents and will respond to them with appropriate sanctions, which may include for Students expulsion, suspension, or exclusion from the campus and for faculty and staff disciplinary action up to and including termination. Students, faculty, or staff who experience or witness any form of hate crime or bias-motivated incident should immediately report the incident to the Department of Public Safety.

2. DEFINITIONS:
“Hate Crimes” are acts of physical force, threats, or intimidation that are willfully or knowingly committed because of the victim’s actual or perceived disability, gender, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion or sexual orientation. Hate crimes are expressed in several ways, sometimes physical violence and sometimes violence against property. (California Penal Code, §§422.55 and 422.6).

“Bias-Motivated Incidents” are acts, including, but not limited, to disseminating racist flyers or defacing a student organization flyer, which do not violate the State Penal Code, but originate in bias against someone’s actual or perceived disability, gender, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion or sexual orientation.

These policy definitions are not intended to and do not limit the University’s ability to discipline or otherwise respond to conduct which does not necessarily violate the law, but which the University determines is a violation of this policy.

3. POLICIES/PROCEDURES:
Students, faculty and staff who have questions regarding the University’s policy of equal opportunity and non-discrimination should contact the University EEO Specialist, who is the designated Title IX Coordinator for the University, at Human Resources, 1 LMU Drive, Suite 1900, Los Angeles, CA 90045, phone: (310) 568-6105. Students, faculty and staff who have questions regarding Section 504 administration and compliance should contact the Vice President of Human Resources, who is the University’s designated ADA Coordinator, at Human Resources, 1 LMU Drive, Suite 1900, Los Angeles, CA 90045, phone: (310) 338-5118.
Discriminatory Harassment and Complaint Process

1. STATEMENT OF POLICY:
Loyola Marymount University is dedicated to fostering the education of the whole person and strives to provide an environment that encourages the search for truth and freedom of inquiry. The University recognizes the important contribution a diverse community of students, faculty and staff makes towards the advancement of its goals and ideals. The University is committed to providing an environment that is free of discrimination and harassment as defined by federal, state and local law, as well as under this policy. Any violations of this policy will be treated as serious misconduct and result in appropriate disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from the University.

This policy applies to all students, faculty and staff including, but not limited to: trainees, unpaid interns, non-supervisory staff, supervisors, managers, directors and leadership. It is also the policy of the University to protect its students, faculty and staff from unlawful harassment by vendors, guests and other visitors to the University. It is the responsibility of every student, faculty and staff member to follow this policy conscientiously.

The University seeks to ensure a positive living, learning and working environment for all LMU community members. Specifically, this policy prohibits unwelcome, harassing conduct on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, legally protected medical condition (cancer-related or genetic characteristic), marital status, sex (including gender identity or gender expression as defined by law, pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding or related medical condition), age 40 or over, military or veteran status, sexual orientation, genetic information or any other bases protected by federal (including but not limited to Title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990), state or local law. Students, faculty and staff should be aware of and avoid actions that others may construe as unwelcome and/or harassing. See Student Conduct Code on page 6. For Human Resources Policies & Procedures please visit http://lmu.edu/hrpolicies. For the Faculty Handbook please visit http://lmu.edu/facultyhandbook.

The objective of this policy is to prevent an environment from developing which unreasonably interferes with a student’s academic endeavors and/or a faculty/staff member’s work or has the effect of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment because of such prohibited conduct. It is essential that students, faculty and staff immediately report conduct that is believed to be in violation of this policy. Prompt reporting is necessary in order that timely fact-finding can be conducted about complaints, a problem can be remedied before the situation escalates, and the potential for the spread of harmful rumors can be reduced. Unless the law requires a longer period of limitation, a complaint must be filed within one calendar year of the conduct alleged to be a violation. For the Complaint of Allegation of Discriminatory Harassment Form please visit http://lmu.edu/reportacomplaint.
2. DEFINITIONS:

“Harassment” is unwelcome verbal, non-verbal, physical or visual conduct based on any legally protected characteristic outlined above that has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with academic or work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive living, academic or work environment.

“Sexual Harassment” is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, including unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, non-verbal, physical or visual conduct by a person of either the same or opposite sex where:

1. submission to or rejection of the conduct is made either an explicit or implicit condition of academic achievement and/or employment; or
2. submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as the basis for an academic and/or employment decision; or
3. the conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with academic, or work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive living, academic, or work environment.

“Hostile Environment” is defined as any situation in which there is harassing conduct that is sufficiently severe, pervasive and objectively offensive that it limits, interferes with or denies educational or employment benefits or opportunities from both a subjective (the complainant) and objective (reasonable person’s) viewpoint.

“Consent” is defined as the unambiguous and willing participation or cooperation in act, behavior or attitude that is commonly understood to be consistent with the exercise of free will. It is the responsibility of each person involved in the sexual activity to ensure that he or she has the affirmative consent of the other(s) to engage in the sexual activity. Consent requires participants who are lawful adults, fully conscious, equally free and legally competent to act, have clearly communicated their willingness, cooperation or permission to participate in the specific sexual activity engaged in, are positive and clear about their desires, and are able to cease ongoing consensual activity at any time. Refusal to consent does not have to be verbal; it can be expressed with clear gestures, body language or attitude. Lack of protest or resistance does not mean consent, nor does silence mean consent. Prior sexual history between the complainant and respondent, by itself, does not constitute consent.

Consent is not freely given if:

1. It is obtained through the use of force, through the fear of or the threat of force, through the abuse of a power positions over another (such as employment status or position within an organization) or by kidnap; or
2. A reasonable person in the position of the alleged perpetrator at the time the alleged conduct occurred should have known that the other person was unable to give consent for any of the following reasons:
a. The individual is unable to make an informed decision as a result of the use of alcohol, drugs or other substances (including, but not limited to, predatory drugs or prescribed medications);
b. The individual is unable to consciously respond for whatever reason including lack of consciousness, sleep, illness or shock;
c. The individual is under the age of 18 and therefore legally incapable of giving consent; or
d. The individual is known by reason of impairment, mental condition or developmental or physical disability to be reasonably unable to consent.

3. The individual has acted or spoken in a manner which expresses a lack of consent or a refusal to consent.

The following are invalid excuses for failing to obtain affirmative consent from the Complainant:

1. The responding party’s belief in affirmative consent arose from the intoxication or recklessness of the responding party; or
2. The responding party did not take reasonable steps, in the circumstances known to the responding party at the time, to ascertain whether the complaining party affirmatively consented.

“Sexual Misconduct” is defined as Sexual Assault, Sexual Exploitation, Interpersonal Misconduct or the act of making sexual contact with the intimate body part of another person without that person’s consent including as the result of sexual coercion. Intimate body parts include the sexual organs, the anus, the groin or buttocks of any person and/or the breasts.

“Sexual Assault” is defined as engaging in sexual intercourse or any of the sexual activities listed below with another person without that person’s consent. Sexual Assault includes, but is not limited to, rape, sexual battery, anal intercourse, oral copulation or penetration of a body cavity by a foreign object. Sexual intercourse includes the penetration, however slight, of the vagina or anus with any object or body part and of the mouth with a body part or object in a sexual manner.

“Sexual exploitation” is sexual misconduct that occurs when a person takes unjust or abusive sexual advantage of another for his or her benefit or for the benefit of anyone other than the exploited party; and that behavior does not otherwise constitute sexual assault. Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to, invasion of sexual privacy, videotaping or photographing of any type (webcam, camera, Internet exposure, etc.) without knowledge and consent of all persons; going beyond the boundaries of consent (such as letting another person hide and watch you have consensual sex without the knowledge of the other party), engaging in unconsented voyeurism, exposing one’s genitals or breasts in non-consensual circumstances; and/or coercing another against their will to expose their genitals or breasts, and prostituting another person.
“Interpersonal Misconduct” includes Dating Violence, Domestic Violence and Stalking, as defined below.

“Dating Violence” is defined in accordance with the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act, as violence committed by a person:

1. Who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and
2. Where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the complaining party’s statement with consideration of the following factors:
   a. The length of the relationship
   b. The type of the relationship
   c. The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
3. Dating Violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or threat of such abuse. Dating violence does not include acts covered by the definition of domestic violence.

“Domestic Violence” is defined in accordance with the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act as a felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under California law, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under California law.

“Stalking” is defined in accordance with the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act as engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person(s) that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or suffer substantial emotional distress.

For the purposes of this definition “course of conduct” means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly or through third parties, by any action, method, device or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person’s property.

For the purposes of this definition “substantial emotional distress” means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

“Retaliation” means adverse, non-permitted action taken against a person who reports a violation of this policy, assists someone with a report of a violation of this policy, or participates in any manner in an investigation or resolution of a report of a violation of this policy. Retaliation can include, but is not limited to: threats, intimidation, coercion, harassment, reprisals, spreading negative information about an individual, exclusions from academic and non-academic programs and/or adverse actions related to employment.
“Hate Crimes” are acts of physical force, threats or intimidation that are willfully or knowingly committed because of the victim’s actual or perceived disability, gender, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion or sexual orientation. Hate crimes are expressed in several ways, sometimes physical violence and sometimes violence against property. (California Penal Code, §§422.55 and 422.6).

“Bias-Motivated Incidents” are acts, including, but not limited to, disseminating racist flyers or defacing a student organization flyer, which do not violate the State Penal Code, but originate in bias against someone’s actual or perceived disability, gender, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion or sexual orientation.

These policy definitions are not intended to and do not limit the University’s ability to discipline or otherwise respond to conduct which does not necessarily violate the law, but which the University determines is a violation of this policy.

Discriminatory Harassment and Academic Freedom
Nothing in this policy should be construed to infringe on the academic freedom of members of the University community and their right to use the academic forum provided by the University either to discuss controversial subjects or to express ideas with which some or most members of the University community strongly disagree.

Students, faculty and staff who have questions regarding the University’s discriminatory harassment policy should contact the University EEO Specialist, who is the designated Title IX Coordinator for the University, at Human Resources, 1 LMU Drive, Suite 1900, Los Angeles, CA 90045, phone: (310) 568-6105. For Complaint of Allegation of Discriminatory Harassment Form please visit http://lmu.edu/reportacomplaint.

3. POLICIES/PROCEDURES:

Reporting Allegations of Discriminatory or Harassing Conduct
All members of the University community, including students, faculty and staff, are encouraged, when appropriate and desirable, to try to resolve issues relating to conduct they believe to be discriminatory or harassing by directly addressing any person(s) engaged(ing) in inappropriate or unwelcome behavior and requesting that the behavior stop or be modified in some mutually satisfactory way.

However, we recognize that not everyone will feel comfortable engaging in such direct conflict resolution and/or that a direct approach will not always result in an acceptable resolution to all persons involved. In those instances where direct resolution is either not desirable or inadequate to resolve the inappropriate or unwelcome discriminatory or harassing behavior, any member of the University community is strongly encouraged to file a complaint of discrimination or harassment with any of the persons or departments listed below.
Complaints of Sexual Misconduct

Pursuant to the University’s “Reporting Sexual Misconduct” policy, all reports of sexual misconduct, as defined above, should be made to the Department of Public Safety at (310) 338-2893 [x82893 on campus].

Complaints of student-on-student sexual misconduct are handled through the Student Conduct Code.

All other complaints of sexual misconduct made by or against a student, faculty or staff member are subject to the processes described in University’s “Reporting Sexual Misconduct” policy, and the processes in “Step 1: Intake” and “Step 3: Formal Resolution” set forth in this policy, below. For complaints of sexual misconduct, DPS is charged with the “Intake” procedures set forth below.

Complaints of sexual misconduct made against an individual who is not a student, faculty or staff member are subject to the University’s Discriminatory Harassment and Complaint Process policy, but will not proceed through the Formal Resolution processes.

Complaints of student-on-student discriminatory harassment are handled through the Student Conduct Code.

Staff

Staff may report discriminatory or harassing conduct, as defined in this policy, to any of the following:
All supervisory faculty, administrators and staff are required to report inappropriate conduct against another faculty, administrator or staff member in violation of the University’s policies against discrimination and harassment. Unless the law requires a longer period of limitation, a complaint must be filed within one calendar year of the conduct alleged to be a violation. Prompt reporting will enable the University to investigate the facts, determine the issues and provide an appropriate remedy for any violation of University policies.

Students, faculty and staff may also contact the U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights to file a complaint of discrimination or harassment or sexual misconduct, and faculty and staff may file a complaint of discrimination or harassment or sexual misconduct with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or the California Department of Fair Housing and Employment. However, a complaint filed with any outside government agency will not suspend the investigation or resolution of a complaint of discrimination or harassment filed pursuant to the University’s internal Discrimination and Harassment Complaint Process.

Interim Measures
The University may take interim measures, including, but not limited to, academic, residential, transportation and/or employment accommodations, intended to ensure the well-being of the complainant, the respondent, the investigatory process and/or the University community while the complaint is being investigated and prior to the determination on the complaint. Any such interim measures shall not be referred to or offered as evidence at the hearing on the underlying charge. Any such interim measures shall be designed and implemented in a manner intended to achieve their purpose while at the same time limiting, to the extent practicable, any adverse effect to the complainant’s and/or respondent’s educational program or employment. Any such interim measures shall remain confidential, to the extent possible, to achieve the measure. Both the complainant and respondent will receive written notification of their access to interim measures.

Advisors
Complaints of Sexual Misconduct
All persons involved in a complaint of sexual misconduct may, at any time in the process, request the assistance of an advisor to be appointed by the University or select an advisor of their choice. The advisor may accompany the complainant and/or respondent during the complaint process. The advisor may assist in the presentation of the case to the EEO Hearing Panel (during any Formal Resolution).
Complaints of Discriminatory Harassment

All persons involved in a complaint of discriminatory harassment may, at any time during the process, request the assistance of an advisor selected from the University community. An advisor is defined as any current student, faculty or staff or religious community member, but not the Law School students, faculty or staff. Off-campus individuals, parents, family members, attorneys, alumni/ae and those persons who have no affiliation with the University are expressly excluded from the definition of “Advisor” and cannot serve as Advisors. Current faculty or staff cannot act as an Advisor to their own family members.

The advisor may accompany either the complainant and/or respondent during the complaint process. The use of an advisor is not intended as legal representation, and no attorney will be present during the grievance procedures, except as may be permitted pursuant to the Faculty Grievance Process on appeal. The advisor may assist in the presentation of the case to the EEO Specialist (during any Informal Resolution) or to the EEO Hearing Panel (during any Formal Resolution).

Complaining/Responding Party Rights – Complaint of Sexual Misconduct

The complaining and responding parties involved in a complaint of sexual misconduct have the right to:

1. Receive a written notification of available on and off campus existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid, and other services available as well as notification of the procedures for institutional disciplinary action and their rights and options as defined in sexual misconduct cases.
2. Make a complaint to the Department of Public Safety.
3. File a police report and take legal action separate from and/or in addition to filing a Student Conduct Code complaint seeking disciplinary action.
4. Be informed of the disciplinary finding (responsible or not responsible) in writing.
5. Present material witnesses to the alleged incident.
6. Refuse any/all of the above.

Confidentiality & Non-Retaliation

Confidentiality will be maintained to the greatest extent possible in view of the method of complaint resolution chosen.

All persons are prohibited from taking any retaliatory action against any other member of the University Community, including the complainant, respondent, or witnesses involved in the complaint. Retaliation may be subject to a separate complaint under this policy and/or appropriate disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from the University. Any person who believes that she/he has been retaliated against for having filed or participated in the investigation of a complaint of discrimination or harassment should immediately notify the EEO Specialist of the retaliatory conduct.
False or Harassing Complaints Prohibited

It is a violation of this policy to file a false complaint against anyone for the purpose of injuring the reputation of or harassing another. Any person found to have filed a false complaint against another in bad faith or for the purpose of injuring the reputation of or harassing another will be subject to appropriate discipline. This proscription is in no way intended to discourage the filing of good faith complaints of discrimination or harassment, even if those complaints do not result in a finding of misconduct or sanction under the University’s policies.

Discrimination and Harassment Complaint Process

For those persons who believe they have been the victim of, or have witnessed, discrimination, harassment or sexual misconduct by or against any member of the University community, including sexual harassment, this Complaint Process is the exclusive means by which complaints of discrimination and harassment may be investigated and resolved, unless the complaint involves student-on-student discrimination, harassment or sexual misconduct conduct. This Complaint Process is not intended to, and does not, preclude any member of the University community from addressing and resolving issues of inappropriate or unwelcome conduct directly with any other member of the University community.

Step 1: Intake

All complaints of discrimination or harassment, regardless of how reported, if not resolved directly, will be referred by the person receiving the complaint to the EEO Specialist for Intake and Resolution pursuant to this Complaint Process.

All complaints of sexual misconduct will be made or referred to the Department of Public Safety. In such cases, the Department of Public Safety will perform all “Intake” processes, as set forth below.

The EEO Specialist/Department of Public Safety will first meet with the complainant (i.e. the person making the complaint) to either make a complaint, if not already made, or, if a written complaint has been made, to verify the accuracy of the allegations contained in the written complaint. The complaint will include, but not be limited to:

1. the name of the complainant;
2. the name(s) of the respondent(s) (i.e. the person(s) accused of violating the University’s policies against discrimination or harassment or sexual misconduct);
3. the date(s) and nature of all alleged discriminatory or harassing conduct or sexual misconduct;
4. the name(s) of any witness(es) to the alleged discriminatory or harassing conduct or sexual misconduct or person(s) that might otherwise have information relevant to the alleged discriminatory or harassing conduct or sexual misconduct by the respondent; and
5. if appropriate, whether the complainant is amenable to informal resolution of the complaint.
The EEO Specialist/Department of Public Safety will then meet with the respondent to notify the respondent of the complaint and the allegations against her/him. During this meeting, the EEO Specialist/Department of Public Safety will also document the response to the allegations of the complaint, including, but not limited to:

1. the respondent’s version of each of the event(s) of alleged discriminatory or harassing conduct or sexual misconduct identified by the complainant;
2. the name(s) of any witness(es) to the alleged discriminatory or harassing conduct or sexual misconduct or person(s) that might otherwise have information relevant to the alleged discriminatory or harassing conduct or sexual misconduct by the respondent;
3. any additional information that the respondent believes is relevant to a determination of the complaint; and
4. if appropriate, whether the respondent is amenable to informal resolution of the complaint.

Complaints of Discrimination or Harassment
The EEO Specialist will evaluate the allegations of the complaint and the response to determine the following:

1. whether the allegations constitute a claim of discrimination or harassment subject to the University’s Complaint Process;
2. whether the claim and the parties are amenable to informal resolution. [Note: Claims that may not be suitable for informal resolution include, but are not limited to, those that may involve the interests of persons other than the claimant, claims of physical assault or violence or claims that involve other potentially criminal conduct]; and
3. whether there are any immediate actions that should be taken to redress the alleged inappropriate conduct pending further resolution of the complaint.

If the EEO Specialist determines that the complaint does not constitute a claim of discrimination or harassment subject to the Complaint Process, the matter will be referred to the appropriate University personnel or University department for resolution.

If the EEO Specialist determines that the complaint does constitute a claim of discrimination or harassment subject to the Complaint Process, then:

1. If the claims and parties are amenable to informal resolution, the matter will proceed as set forth below in Step 2: Informal Resolution. [Note: Both parties must consent to informal resolution, otherwise the matter must proceed to Step 3: Formal Resolution.]
2. If the claims and/or parties are not amenable to informal resolution, the matter will proceed as set forth below in Step 3: Formal Resolution.

Complaints of Sexual Misconduct
In complaints of sexual misconduct, the Department of Public Safety will evaluate the allegations of the complaint and the response to determine whether there are any immediate actions that should be taken to redress the alleged inappropriate conduct pending further resolution of the complaint.

The Department of Public Safety will provide its reports to Judicial Affairs in cases involving complaints of student-on-student sexual misconduct, or will provide its report to the EEO Specialist for all other claims of sexual misconduct.

1. If the claims involve student-on-student sexual misconduct, the matter will proceed as set forth in the University’s Student-on-Student Sexual Misconduct Policy and Protocol.

2. All other claims of sexual misconduct will proceed as set forth below in Step 3: Formal Resolution.

Step 2: Informal Resolution

Informal Resolution is a process whereby the University attempts to resolve complaints quickly and effectively to the satisfaction of all parties without engaging in a formal fact-finding process or issuing any formal findings, while also providing the greatest protection of confidentiality possible to the parties. At any time during the informal resolution process, either party may elect to terminate the process and proceed with a formal resolution pursuant to Step 3 below.

Informal Resolution may take the form of an interactive resolution by the EEO Specialist. The EEO Specialist will meet with both the complainant and respondent, and any other persons or witnesses determined to be necessary to a full resolution of the complaint, to review the allegations and any response, and assist the parties in reaching a mutually satisfactory resolution.

If resolution is reached by these informal means, the resolution will be documented by the EEO Specialist and the matter will be closed. If resolution is not reached by these informal means, and the EEO Specialist determines that the complaint remains subject and amenable to resolution under the Complaint Process, the complaint will be referred to Step 3 below for Formal Resolution. The University reserves the right to terminate the informal resolution process and to deny formal processing of a complaint if at any time during the informal resolution it is determined that the allegations of the complaint are not subject or amenable to resolution under the Complaint Process.

Step 3: Formal Resolution

If a complaint is not suitable for informal resolution (the complainant, respondent or both do not agree to resolution of the complaint by informal means, or if informal resolution is not successful in resolving the matter, or if the complaint involves allegations of sexual misconduct) an EEO Hearing Panel will be constituted to hear and resolve the complaint.

Each EEO Hearing Panel will consist of 4 EEO Hearing Panel members and one EEO Hearing Panel Chair who will preside over the hearing and—as on the Panel’s behalf—issue findings and a recommended remedy, if any, on each EEO complaint. The EEO Hearing Panel shall be constituted as follows:

The complaining party and responding party will each nominate four panelists from an approved list. Faculty and staff members may nominate other faculty and/or staff members for the EEO Hearing Panel. Students may nominate students, faculty and/or staff members for the EEO Hearing Panel.

Each individual nominated by the complaining and responding parties must:

- Have satisfactorily completed University required training,
- Not be an attorney,
- Not have a personal interest in the EEO complaint or its resolution, and
- If a staff member, have completed his/her introductory period.

The Vice President of Human Resources will make the final selection of the panel members from the nominees by selecting two of the complaining party’s nominees and two of the responding party’s nominees.

The fifth panel member will be an HR Representative who will preside over the hearing as the EEO Hearing Panel Chair. The Vice President of Human Resources will designate the HR Representative who will act as the EEO Hearing Panel Chair. The HR Representative will only act as a voting panelist if there is a split decision between the EEO Hearing Panel members.

Once selected, the EEO Hearing Panel Chair will provide at least ten (10) calendar days notice to the complaining and responding parties of the date of the hearing. All EEO Hearing Panel members will receive training on the University’s anti-discrimination/harassment and sexual misconduct policies and on the administration of this Complaint Process prior to the hearing.

The function of the EEO Hearing Panel shall be to: (1) determine whether any University policy against discrimination, harassment or sexual misconduct has been violated, including any lesser offense than that charged in the complaint; and (2) if so, recommend an appropriate remedy to redress the violation. At the EEO Hearing Panel proceedings, each party shall have the right to present testimony and evidence in support of his/her claims or defenses. The EEO Hearing Panel shall be empowered to hear and receive evidence and testimony relating to the complaint, including compelling either party to produce a witness or evidence deemed relevant to the determination of the complaint, and question any witnesses, including the complainant or respondent.

The EEO Hearing Panel Chair shall be responsible for presiding over the EEO Hearing Panel proceedings and ensuring the orderly presentation of the evidence and testimony, as well as ensuring that the parties are accorded a fair and full opportunity to present their claims and defenses. The EEO Hearing Panel proceedings will not be governed in accordance with any rules of evidence or procedure, but will be administered in the sole discretion of the EEO Hearing Panel, under the direction of the EEO Hearing Panel Chair.
Chair. All EEO Hearing Panel proceedings will be closed to general members of the University community. Attendance at EEO Hearing Panel proceedings will be limited to the complainant, respondent, an advisor to either party, witnesses called to testify by either party, and the designated EEO Hearing Panel members.

After the presentation of all testimony and evidence by both parties, the EEO Hearing Panel will convene privately to deliberate on the facts and evidence. Within fifteen (15) calendar days from the adjournment of the hearing, the EEO Hearing Panel will issue a written decision reflecting the panel’s finding of whether any of the University’s policies against discrimination, harassment or sexual misconduct have been violated, the factual basis for such finding, and the recommended remedy for any violation. The written decision will be made using the preponderance of evidence standard. The findings and recommendation will be based solely on the presentation of evidence and testimony during the hearing and will include sufficient detail in support of the decision to allow adequate review on appeal.

If the decision contains a recommended remedy, the EEO Hearing Panel will forward its written decision to the EEO Specialist and the appropriate University Senior Vice President responsible for enforcing any remedy for review and approval. If the recommended remedy is not approved, the written decision must be supplemented to reflect the reasons for any modification. [Note: A recommended remedy may be modified, for example, on the basis of prior disciplinary action against the respondent to which the EEO Hearing Panel is not privy.] Within five (5) calendar days from the date of the written decision the EEO Specialist will issue written notice to both the complainant and respondent of the findings of the EEO Hearing Panel, including the determination of whether any University policy against discrimination or harassment has been violated, the factual basis for the finding, and any remedy. In the case where the remedy involves discipline against the respondent, the complainant will be notified only that the respondent will be appropriately disciplined for the violation, but will not receive notice of the specific nature of any discipline, unless required by law. Notice to the respondent will include specific reference to the discipline to be enforced against her/him. The decision of the EEO Hearing Panel is final unless appealed, pursuant to Step 4 below, within ten (10) calendar days from the date of the written notice to the parties.

Step 4: Appeal

Either party may appeal within ten (10) calendar days of the date of the written notice of the decision of the EEO Hearing Panel by providing written notice of appeal as follows:

Appeal by Complainant

The complainant may appeal the decision of the EEO Hearing Panel to the University Executive Vice President and Provost. A formal notice of appeal must be filed in writing with the Office of the University Executive Vice President and Provost. Upon receipt of the written notice of appeal, the Office of the University Executive Vice President and Provost will provide notice of the appeal in writing to the EEO Specialist, the appropriate University Senior Vice President, if any, and the respondent. The University Executive Vice President and Provost will review the record of the case, including but not limited to the written decision of the EEO Hearing Panel and any evidence or other documentation contained in the case file, to determine whether the decision, including the findings and recommended remedy, if any, of the EEO Hearing Panel should be affirmed, reversed, or modified. Within ten (10) calendar days from the date of the written notice of appeal, the University Executive Vice President and Provost will notify the parties in writing of the decision on appeal. In the event the decision of the EEO Hearing Panel is reversed or modified, the notice by the University Executive Vice President and Provost will include an explanation of the grounds on which the decision has been reversed or modified. The decision of the University Executive Vice President and Provost shall be final.

Appeal by Respondent

The respondent may appeal the decision of the EEO Hearing Panel as follows:

1. A student respondent may appeal the decision of the EEO Hearing Panel by sending written notice of appeal to Judicial Affairs within ten (10) calendar days from the date of the notice of the decision. The appeal of the decision of the EEO Hearing Panel will proceed in accordance with the procedures for appeal found in the Student Conduct Code.

2. A faculty respondent may appeal the decision of the EEO Hearing Panel by sending written notice of appeal to the Faculty Grievance Committee within ten (10) calendar days from the date of the notice of the decision. The appeal of the decision of the EEO Hearing Panel will proceed in accordance with the procedures for review of a faculty grievance of "dismissal or other severe sanction" found in the Faculty Handbook.

3. A staff member may appeal the decision of the EEO Hearing Panel by sending written notice of appeal to the University Executive Vice President and Provost within ten (10) calendar days from the date of the notice of the decision. The appeal of the decision of the EEO Hearing Panel will proceed in accordance with the procedure set forth above for appeals by complainants.

Scope of Review on Appeal

All appeals shall be based on a review of the record of the case, including but not limited to the written decision of the EEO Hearing Panel and any evidence or other documentation contained in the case file. The scope of review on appeal shall be solely to determine if the findings and recommended remedy, if any, are supported by a preponderance of the evidence in the record of the case. No appealing party shall be permitted to offer new evidence for consideration on appeal unless the party can demonstrate that the evidence did not exist or the party was reasonably unaware of the evidence at the time of the EEO Hearing. If new evidence is permitted for consideration on appeal, the reviewer will only be permitted to determine whether the additional evidence might reasonably have resulted in a different finding or remedy. If the reviewer determines that the additional evidence might reasonably have resulted in a different finding or remedy, the case shall be remanded to the EEO Hearing Panel for reconsideration of the case in light of the new evidence.

Decision on Appeal

Within ten (10) calendar days from the date of the written notice of appeal, the reviewer will issue a written decision on appeal to both the complainant and respondent, which shall state whether the decision of the EEO Hearing Panel, including the findings and remedy, if any, are affirmed, reversed, modified or in the case of new evidence remanded. In the event the decision or remedy of the EEO Hearing Panel is reversed or modified, the notice shall include an explanation of the grounds for reversal or modification. Notice to the complainant will not include reference to the specific nature of any discipline to be enforced against the respondent, unless required by law. Copy of the written notice will also be forwarded to the EEO Specialist and the appropriate University Senior Vice President, if any. All appeal decisions are final.

Record Keeping

The University will maintain records of all complaints of discrimination, harassment and sexual misconduct filed pursuant to the Discrimination and Harassment Complaint Process for a period of not less than four (4) years. All records will be maintained by the EEO Specialist. Complaint records will not be maintained with the academic or employment records of any student, faculty or staff, except that some notation of disciplinary action taken against any student, faculty, or staff pursuant to the Complaint Process may be made in the academic or employment record(s) of that individual if required as a condition of the discipline itself or pursuant to administrative record-keeping requirements.

Annually, the University will publish a record of the number of complaints filed pursuant to the Discrimination and Harassment Complaint Process and the basis of each complaint. No information will be published about the identity of persons involved in or the specific nature of any discriminatory harassment complaint.

Training

Pursuant to California law, all supervisory faculty and staff personnel shall receive two (2) hours of training on sexual harassment, including specifically the University’s policy against discriminatory harassment, once every two years. This training will be coordinated and administered by the University Title IX Coordinator/EEO Specialist in conjunction with the Department of Human Resources. Any individual who has a question regarding this training should contact the Title IX Coordinator/EEO Specialist at the Human Resources Office, x86105.
