DANCE WITH ME 02.19

In our Family Week event, we invited all Lions & their families to participate in our student-led dance workshops! Students Eliza Ossolinski ’23, Madeline Sharp ’22, & Kelly Peterson ’23 taught ballet, house, & jazz funk routines. Lions got to break a sweat, bond with each other, & learn something new! These beginner-friendly workshops gave students & their families the perfect opportunity to engage with the LMU community from home!

BEHIND THE SCENES WITH: ZACK BIA 02.26

Zack Bia joined us to talk all about his journey as an entrepreneur. He spilled all the details on how he went from a kid in LA going to USC to working with some of the biggest celebrities in the world. Also how he became recognized worldwide as an ultra-talented creator of successful business endeavors including fashion brands, music labels, & the nightlife industry. Zack told students all about his current projects & even offered up some advice on how to be successful when pursuing your passions.

ASHLEY SALISBURY
SPOTLIGHT MANAGER

"Lately I’ve been reading/listening to the audiobook of Star Wars: Light of the Jedi. It came out last month & it takes place before the timeline of all the movies. It’s been a great way to geek out & learn more about the Star Wars universe!"

ASHTON CLOPTON
ASST. SPOTLIGHT MANAGER

"A tv show that I have been watching lately is The Confession Tapes on Netflix. The show highlights instances where police pressured suspects to confess to crimes they did not commit using unethical means & threats. I recommend to someone who wants something different then their typical true crime documentaries."

ANDREW SIMPSON
ASST. SPECIAL EVENTS MANAGER

"One of the first songs on my February playlist is ‘Meet Me At Our Spot’. It’s freaking peak vibes – perfect for jamming out in your room, long drives, doing homework. But more than that, the song talks about the anxiety we feel when we’re isolated, but the joy felt when you’re with your friends or loved ones. It really speaks to what we’re all experiencing right now."

STAFF PICS
IN HONOR OF BLACK HISTORY MONTH...

WHOPPI GOLDBERG:
You probably know this lovable celebrity for her part on The View and her various comedy routines, but Goldberg has made a huge mark on entertainment history. She won a Daytime Emmy for Beyond the Tara: The Extraordinary Life of Hattie McDaniel. She won a Grammy for her 1986 comedy album. She was the second Black woman to win the Best Supporting Actress Oscar for her role in Ghost. And in 2000, Goldberg won a Tony for producing Thoroughly Modern Millie. By winning this award, she became the first Black EGOT winner.

HATTI MCDANIEL:
Although her role in “Gone with the Wind” is controversial, McDaniel made history for being the first Black Oscar winner in the 1940s. She still faced massive discrimination & was forced to sit in the back of the room as she won, but her mark on Hollywood has helped pioneer the inclusion of Black actors in films.

ARSENIO HALL:
After graduating and moving to Chicago to pursue becoming a stand-up comedian, Hall was discovered by jazz singer Nancy Wilson. From there, he opened for several big names like Aretha Franklin, Patti LaBelle, & Tina Turner. In 1987, Hall became the first Black talk show host on The Arsenio Hall Show, where he had guests like Bill Clinton & Diana Ross.

5 MOVIES FOR BLACK HISTORY MONTH

NETFLIX: Homecoming, Moonlight, Ma Rainey’s Black Bottom, Fruitvale Station, The Death & Life of Marsha P. Johnson

PRIME: One Night in Miami, Small Axe, Selah Spades, Coming to America, Sylvie’s Love

HULU: If Beale Street Could Talk, United States v. Billie Holiday, Girl’s Trip, 12 Years a Slave, BlacKKKlansman

HBO MAX: Judas & the Black Messiah, Ray, Just Mercy, Us, Malcom X

DISNEY +: Black is King, Soul, Black Panther, Hidden Figures, Cinderella (1997)
